UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.

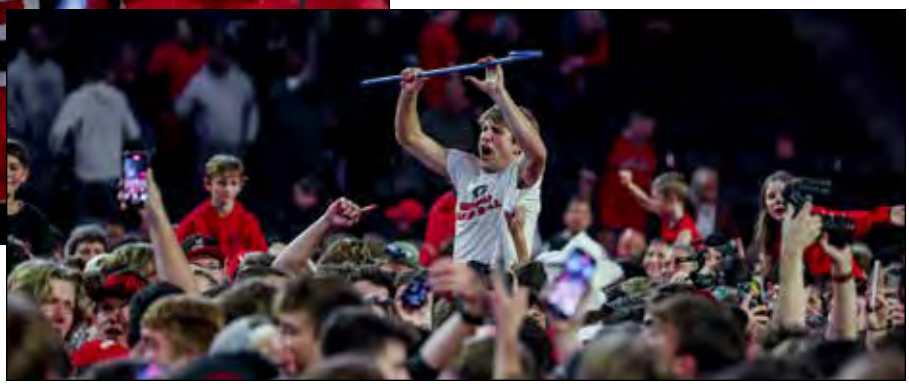
UGA transformed Stegeman Coliseum with two major renovations costing more than $20 million combined to give the arena at 21st century face lift...and has spent additional millions in the past several years.

FANS FLOCK TO THE STEG:

Georgia's reseating of Stegeman Coliseum and the moving of UGA's student section to touch the arena's floor has turned the venue into an electric atmosphere. Over the past three seasons, Georgia has welcomed 18 crowds of more than 10,000 fans to Stegeman, including 12 sellouts.



STEGEMAN UPDATES:

- In 2010, a $13-million renovation upgraded Stegeman's concourse and added 10,000-square feet of space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won multiple awards including from the American Institute of Architects.
- In 2016-17, an $8-million investment enhanced the Coliseum's court and seating areas and added 1000-square feet of HD video and nearly 3000-square feet of LED scoreboard sections.
- During Mike White's tenure, athletic training and strength & conditioning facilities have been added to Stegeman Coliseum, creating more than 7000-square feet of basketball-specific space.

NOTABLE NUMERALS

40 Asa Newell became Georgia's 40th all-time NBA Draft pick when he was taken No. 23 overall in the first round of the 2025 selections.

18 UGA has welcomed 18 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau at Stegeman Coliseum during Mike White's three seasons in Athens.

97 Georgia Bulldog basketball players have combined to be earn All-SEC 97 accolades during the conference's history.

28 Georgia has earned bids to postseason play 28 times, with all of those coming last 40 seasons. The 1983 Final Four is UGA's best showing.

120 UGA's practice facility, which is adjacent to Stegeman Coliseum, is one of the nation's largest with 120,000 square feet.

90 The SEC Network is the most successful of all college sports TV ventures and was available in 90 million homes when it launched in 2014.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Georgia's home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Credentials are issued on a priority basis. All requests should be made via the SportsSystems online credentialing site.

All single-game credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located at the Coliseum box office adjacent to Gate D on the Smith Street side of the arena (see map on Page 9).

Season parking passes will also be issued to media who cover the majority of UGA's home games. Media parking is in the Coverdell Lot, located off Smith Street behind the Coliseum Training Facility (see map on Page 9). In addition, parking in the Carlton Street deck, which is actually closer to Media Will Call than the Media Lot, is free on game days.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with coaches and players will be conducted before or after practice on pre-determined dates in the Stegeman Coliseum postgame interview room. Unless the calendar necessitates a change, these availabilities will take place the day before each home game. As much advance notice as possible will be given for these dates and times. Please contact Mike Mobley in the Sports Communications office for assistance.

PRACTICES

Georgia's practice sessions are generally closed to the media. Upon request, videographers and photographers may be allowed to shoot a pre-determined portion at the beginning of some practices.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Stegeman Coliseum's press facilities are outlined in the diagram to the following page.

The press room is located through Portal 3 and is equipped with wireless and ethernet internet access. A room with similar capabilities is available for photographers adjacent to the press room.

Credentialed media will be supplied with a voucher which can be redeemed at any Stegeman Coliseum concessions stands for a pregame meal. Vouchers can not be used for alcoholic beverages.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the Coliseum's lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table, while TV announce locations are at center court opposite the scorer's table.

Complete first-half and final box scores will be provided, as will final game books with the aforementioned as well as first- and second-half play-by-plays, first- and second-half shot charts and post-game notes and quotes.

INTERNET ACCESS

Media wishing to obtain high-speed Internet access may log on via either through wireless or hard-wired ethernet method. Both are available in the media seating area and the working press room within the Coliseum. Please see a member of the UGA Sports Communications office to obtain information on how to access the University network.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media covering Georgia home games can view a running statistical account on a web browser by logging onto: uga.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers working on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. Flashes and strobe units are prohibited unless permission has been granted. Photographers should shoot from the designated endzone locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

Photographers who wish to transmit their photos on-site are asked to use the room adjacent to the working press room. This area is specifically dedicated to the transmission of photography and provides greater work space.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following home games, Georgia head coach Mike White and two Bulldog players will be available for interviews in the press conference room accessible via Tunnel 2 of the playing floor. The players will be available first after a 10-minute cooling off period, followed by Coach White.

Zoom sessions with Coach White also will be conducted following road games.

Visiting teams will determine their own post-game procedure for available players. If those interviews are in person, most opponents choose to conduct those interviews may be in one of two locations: outside their locker room, which is located through Portal 1 of the Coliseum playing floor and through the double-doors to the left at the end of the hallway; or in an auxiliary locker room, which is down the hall to the right after exiting the Georgia interview room. The locker room entrance will be on the left as you walk down the hallway.

Christened in 1963 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Stegeman has recently undergone thorough a series of major renovations, receiving a 21st Century face lift. In 2017, fans walked in to the final product following more than $20-million in renovations over several years.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a remarkable makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

During the summer of 2017, the arena received a massive center-hung scoreboard, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

THE GEORGIA BULLDOG RADIO NETWORK

The best and broadest exposure possible for UGA basketball comes from the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network, a joint venture between Learfield College and JMI Sports. Not only with its vast number of affiliates but also from its powerful flagship station AM 750 in Atlanta, the network gives coverage to Bulldog hoops unmatched by any program nationwide.

Learfield provides radio network production for more than 50 major college athletic programs within the SEC and other prominent conferences across the United States.

The network flagship is News/Talk 750 WSB – Atlanta's 50,000-watt, clear-channel station – which provides coverage with a signal that reaches more than 35 states and Canada. Scott Howard and Chuck Dowdle will again handle the play-by-play and color analyst duties, respectively. Coach Mike White can also be heard on weeknights during the season on the Bulldog Hotline, heard over most of the network stations.

Scott Howard (right) and Chuck Dowdle will work their 14th season together in 2025-26.

SCOTT HOWARD

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia sports and in particular, with Bulldog football and basketball. Howard returns for his 31st season behind the microphone at Georgia basketball games. First a color analyst with legendary voice Larry Munson, Howard will be working his 27th season as the Bulldogs' primary play-by-play announcer.

Howard was the sports director at Athens radio stations WNGC-WGAU for 14 years before joining IMG Sports in 2009.

A 1984 Georgia graduate, Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside Munson in 1994. In 2007, he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game. Howard was also play-by-play announcer for Georgia baseball from 1990-96.

CHUCK DOWDLE

Native Atlantan Chuck Dowdle, one of the most prominent figures in the Atlanta sports scene, will return to the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network for the his 14th season as color analyst for basketball broadcasts.

Dowdle retired from WSB-TV in 2009 after 24 years as weeknight sports anchor with the top-rated station. Dowdle also worked for WPLG in Miami from 1973-85. During that time, he hosted the Don Shula TV Show and also announced football for the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes, as well as the NASL's Ft. Lauderdale Strikers.

During his time at WSB, Dowdle was involved with almost every aspect of Atlanta sports, from announcing Falcons' preseason games to hosting UGA football and basketball coaches' shows. He was also the host of "High-Q", a game show pitting some of the Atlanta region's brightest high-school students against one another in academic competition.

Dowdle attended UGA in his freshman year, where he played for the basketball team. He then transferred to Georgia State, where he was a pitcher for the baseball team in his junior and senior years, before graduating in 1972.

ADAM GILLESPIE

After serving as the back-up producer/engineer for the Georgia Radio Network for one season, Adam Gillespie took over in a full-time role beginning with the 2020-21 campaign.

An Athens native who attended high school in Augusta, Gillespie joined the production staff at 680 The Fan in Atlanta in 2005. His role expanded to include producing the postgame show on the Atlanta Braves Network when the stationed the team's broadcast rights in 2010. That same year, 680 became the official sports-talk partner of Georgia Athletics and Gillespie began producing Bulldog Roundtable, the station's show devoted exclusively to UGA Athletics which aired on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

It was a different type of Selection Sunday for Georgia Basketball in 2022. While the college basketball universe was focused on the release of the NCAA Tournament bracket for "March Madness," Georgia made significant waves in the news cycle just as the selection show was ending by announcing Mike White as the Bulldogs' new head coach at 7:54 p.m. ET.

"I am beyond excited for the opportunity to lead the men's basketball program at the University of Georgia," White stated. "I believe in the limitless future of Georgia Basketball."

White, who averaged more than 22 wins per season in 11 campaigns as head coach at Florida and Louisiana Tech, was named the 23rd head men's basketball coach of the Georgia Bulldogs on March 13, 2022. White owns the unique distinction of being named Coach of the Year in three different conferences, securing 2017 SEC, 2015 Conference USA and 2014 WAC honors.

During his first three seasons in Athens, White's teams have displayed consistent and impressive improvement. From the traditional sports information standpoint, you might read something like:

In White's first season, the Bulldogs upped their regular-season win total by double digits from the 2021-22 campaign, producing the second-largest increase among all Power conference programs. A year later, Georgia earned its first postseason bid since 2017 and while advancing to the NIT semifinals reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2016. Last winter, the Bulldogs secured their first NCAA Tournament bid in a decade, doing so while playing a nation-leading eight regular-season games against top-10 opponents.

However, the Bulldogs' growth from a quantifiably measurable standpoint is even more dramatic.

From the 2021-22 season before White arrived through his third campaign at Georgia, the Bulldogs have ascended an average of 181.2 spots among six of the most popular basketball metrics outlined to the right.

 KPI from 22-23-24 as of selection Sunday.*

The immediate future looks even brighter. White and his staff have signed eight top-100 prep prospects in their three recruiting classes, including 2025 NBA Draft first round pick Asa Newell.

White's entire basketball career has been a model of consistent winning and postseason play.

In seven seasons at Florida before his arrival in Athens, he compiled a 142-88 record while leading the Gators to six postseason bids including four NCAA appearances. In four campaigns at Louisiana Tech between 2011-15, White's Bulldogs compiled a 101-40 record, won a trio of conference regular-season titles and advanced to three NITs.

As a head coach, 10 of his 14 teams reached the 20-win mark, while four notched 27 or more victories. White's squads advanced to postseason play during 11 of 13 possible seasons. During another, when the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19, the Gators were a consensus pick for a single-digit NCAA seed.

White's teams have made solid usage of the opportunities afforded them. Georgia's trek to the 2024 NIT semifinals included impressive road victories at Wake Forest and Ohio State in a three-day span. White was the only SEC coach and one of just five D-I coaches (along with Bill Self, Mark Few, Jay Wright and Leonard Hamilton) to win a game in each NCAA Tournament between 2017-21, headlined by a trip to the 2017 "Elite Eight." At Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs won three conference titles – 2013 WAC and 2014 and 2015 Conference USA – and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals in both 2014 and 2015.

White helped five more teams reach 20 wins during his 11 campaigns as an assistant and associate head coach at Ole Miss and Jacksonville State, with the Rebels capturing a pair of SEC West titles. Ole Miss appeared in four NITs during his seven seasons, reaching the semifinals in both 2008 and 2010.

As a player, White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss, including SEC West title teams in 1997 and 1998. He helped the Rebels string together three-consecutive 20-wins seasons from 1997-99, with each culminating with an NCAA Tournament bid – both firsts in program history. White fondly lists his proudest achievement as a player as dribbling out the clock of the Rebels' 72-70 victory over Villanova in 1999 to give Ole Miss its first-ever "March Madness" victory.

Totaling up the aforementioned, White has been a part of 18 20-win teams during his 29 seasons as a college basketball player and coach, capturing seven regular-season conference regular-season titles and earning 19 postseason bids.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL IN GAINESVILLE

Florida earned postseason bids in every season under White, reaching the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, becoming the only SEC program to qualify for four consecutive NCAAs from 2017-21 and advancing to the second round of the 2022 NIT.

From an accolades standpoint, White was voted as 2017 SEC Coach of the Year by both league coaches and the Associated Press after Florida finished second in the league and reached the NCAA "Elite Eight." He also was honored as the District Coach of the Year by the NABC and USWBA that season. In addition, Canyon Berry was tabbed 2017 SEC Sixth Man of the Year, seven different Gators were named All-SEC a combined eight times, three players were named to the SEC All-Freshman team and two were selected for the SEC All-Defensive unit during White's tenure.

Florida recorded 21 wins during White's first campaign in Gainesville, matching the program record for a first-year head coach.

White led Florida to the "Elite Eight" and 27 victories during his second season, just the eighth time in program history the Gators won as many games. In addition, White's two-season tally of 48 wins ranked as the fourth-most in SEC history. Simultaneously, White and his staff also put together a 2017 recruiting class ranked ninth nationally by ESPN that included three top-10 prospects.

In 2017-18, Florida tied for the most wins over top-25 teams nationally, knocking off six ranked foes. The Gators followed that with a late-season surge in 2018-19. After starting 12-11, Florida finished 20-16 and pulled two more ranked upsets in SEC and NCAA Tournament play.

White collected his 100th win at Florida during 2019-20. His pace of 158 games to reach that milestone was second-fastest in program history only to Billy Donovan's 154 contests.

The Gators continued their streak of reaching – and winning – during "March Madness" in 2021, which was even more impressive considering Keyontae Johnson, the Preseason SEC Player of the Year, suffered a medical emergency in the fourth game of the season and did not return to action.

A RECORD-SETTING PACE AT LOUISIANA TECH

At Louisiana Tech, White produced the best winning percentage (.716) of any coach in the program's history as he led the Bulldogs to the Western Athletic Conference regular-season crown in 2013 before winning back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2014 and 2015. The Bulldogs reached the NIT in each of those campaigns and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2014 and 2015. In NIT play, Louisiana Tech recorded a trio of impressive road victories, toppling Florida State in 2013, Georgia in 2014 and Texas A&M in 2015.

White was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2013 and Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2015. He coached the 2015 C-USA Player of the Year, two WAC Newcomers of the Year, the 2014 C-USA Sixth Man of the Year and the 2014 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, four Bulldogs combined to earn nine All-Conference certificates during that span.

White's most impressive coaching effort in Ruston may have been with his first team. Louisiana Tech started 8-10 before going 10-6 the rest of the way and advancing to the championship game of the WAC Tournament. The Bulldogs then went 83-24 over the next three seasons under White.

FROM PRO PLAYER TO STUDENT TO ASSISTANT COACH

White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss and helped the Rebels to a pair of SEC West titles, three NCAA Tournament appearances and the school's first-ever "March Madness" victory. He also earned a spot on two SEC Academic Honor Rolls and was named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team.

After being invited to the Utah Jazz's summer training camp, White spent the 1999-2000 season playing professionally for the IBL's New Mexico Slam and in England before returning to Ole Miss in the spring of 2000 to complete his B.A. in business. The day after his last Final Exam, White made the four-hour drive from Oxford to Jacksonville, Ala., to begin his coaching career at Jacksonville State the next day – literally.

White spent four years at Jacksonville State and helped the Gamecocks secure their first-ever 20-win season in 2003. He then returned to his alma mater and spent seven successful seasons while developing a reputation as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. White helped the Rebels to four NIT berths, including two runs to the NIT Final Four, and SEC West titles in 2007 and 2010.

BORN AND MARRIED INTO ATHLETIC FAMILIES

Though he was born in Dunedin, Fla., White lived all around the U.S. as his father's career in athletic administration progressed. His dad, Kevin, was the Athletic Director at Duke from 2008 until he retired at the end of August 2021 Previously, Kevin was AD at Loras College (1982-87), Maine (1987-91), Tulane (1991-96), Arizona State (1996-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-08).

Both of Mike's brothers and one of his sisters have also excelled in college athletics administration. Danny became the AD at Tennessee in 2021 after serving in the same role at Buffalo from 2012-15 and UCF from 2015-21. He played basketball at Towson and Notre Dame. Brian has been the AD at Florida Atlantic since 2018. He was Deputy AD for external relations at Missouri before moving to Boca Raton. Mariah (Chappell), who swam collegiately at Duke, was Assistant AD for Administration at SMU, where she worked from 2017-23.

White is married to the former Kira Zschau, who was an All-SEC volleyball player at Ole Miss and also has a law degree from Ole Miss. They have five children – two daughters, Rylee and Maggie; twin boys, Collin and Keegan; and another son, Dillon.

Antonio REYNOLDS DEAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • 4TH SEASON • RHODE ISLAND '99

Atlanta native Antonio Reynolds Dean was named Associate Head Coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on April 12, 2022. From his time as a standout post player at one of Georgia's premier high school programs to the anchor of the winningest class in his college alma mater's history to stops throughout his coaching career, Reynolds Dean's career has consistently featured winning teams and postseason play.

That trend has continued in Athens as Georgia. In 2024, Georgia made its first postseason appearance since 2017 and advanced to the NIT semifinals. Last spring, the Bulldogs earned their first NCAA Tournament bid since 2015 and recorded their second consecutive 20-win campaign.

Dean spent five seasons at Clemson from 2017-22, helping the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He also helped coach Rhode Island to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2017 and Northeastern to a pair of NIT invites in 2010 and 2013.

In his first season at Clemson, the Tigers equaled the school record for victories, posting a 25-10 mark and advancing to the "Sweet 16" round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than two decades. Clemson reached the NIT's round of 16 and finished 20-14 in 2019, just the sixth time in school history the Tigers recorded back-to-back 20-win campaigns. Clemson earned another invitation to "March Madness" in 2021 when the Tigers tied for fifth in the ACC standings.

Individually, the Tigers' post players thrived under Reynolds Dean. In 2020, Aamir Simms averaged team bests of 13.0 points and 7.2 rebounds and also led the Tigers in assists and blocks. In 2021, he repeated leading Clemson in points (13.4 ppg), boards (6.4 rpg) and assists – the only player ever in ACC history to do so twice. Elijah Thomas was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team in 2018 and 2019.

Reynolds Dean spent two years as an assistant coach at Rhode Island, where he also was one of the Rams' greatest players ever. In his final season on the staff, the Rams finished 25-10 overall and won the Atlantic-10 Tournament title, their first since his Reynolds Dean's senior year in 1999. The Rams then defeated Creighton in the NCAA Tournament before falling to Oregon, an eventual Final Four participant, 75-72 in the round of 32. While Reynolds Dean was at Rhode Island, he worked with Hassan Martin, the A-10 Defensive Player of the Year in both 2016 and 2017.

Prior to his stint at Rhode Island, Reynolds Dean was an assistant coach at the College of Charleston for the 2014-15 season and at Northeastern for five campaigns from 2009-14. Reynolds Dean helped lead Northeastern to the 2013 CAA regular-season title and bids to the 2010 and 2013 NITs. He spent 2008-09 at Fairfield as the Director of Basketball Operations.

As a player, Reynolds Dean was a two-time all-state performer at Atlanta's Frederick Douglass High. He averaged a double-double during each of those seasons, scoring 24.6 points and 15.5 rebounds as a senior after contributing 23.0 points and 13.0 boards as a junior.

Reynolds Dean enjoyed a standout career at Rhode Island, where he was the 1996 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year and an All-Atlantic 10 selection in 1999. He helped lead the Rams to 85 wins over four seasons, including a then-school record 25 victories in 1998. Rhode Island earned three NCAA Tournament bids during his career, highlighted by a trip to the 1998 "Elite Eight."

Reynolds Dean became just the third player in school history to record 1,000 points and rebounds. Among career leaders, he wrapped up his eligibility as the school record holder for games played (131) and also ranked No. 9 in points (1,576), No. 3 in rebounds (1,028) and No. 2 in blocks (235).

A 2015 inductee into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame, Reynolds Dean is the only person in Rhode Island men's basketball history to play on and coach for an Atlantic 10 Championship team.

Professionally, Reynolds Dean averaged 18.7 points and a league-leading 12.2 rebounds with the Dakota Wizards of the International Basketball League (IBL) in 1999-2000. After being named the IBL's Rookie of the Year in 2000, he played eight seasons overseas in Spain and Argentina.

Reynolds Dean earned a bachelor's degree in Education with an emphasis in Human Development and Family Studies from Rhode Island in 1999 and secured a master's in Sports Leadership from Northeastern in 2012. Reynolds Dean is married for the former Donna Carr, who played volleyball for Georgia in the 1990s. He is the proud father of two daughters, Jasmine and Naomi.

Anthony Goins, who has a consistent history of winning basketball at every stop in his coaching career, was named assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on May 24, 2024.

Prior to his arrival in Athens, Goins spent the past three seasons at Boston College. He also sports stints on the staffs at Clemson, Quinnipiac, Yale and Dartmouth over the last 11 years.

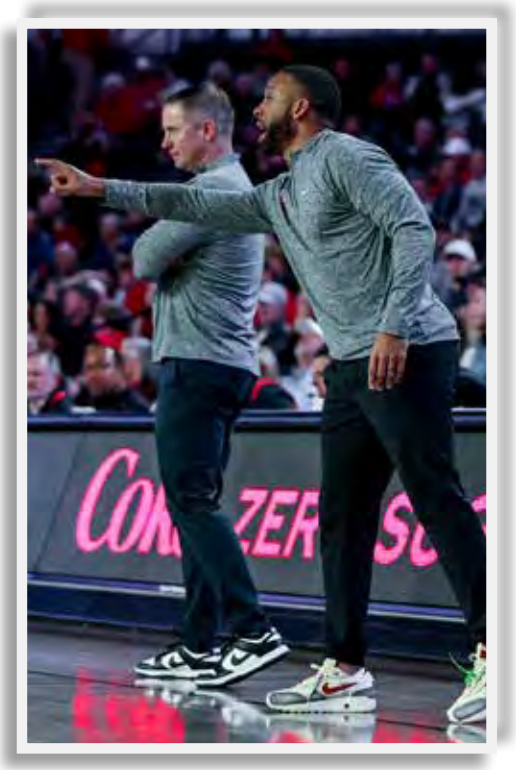
"I couldn't be more excited to join Georgia Basketball," Goins said. "Coach White and his staff have done an unbelievable job building the Georgia program the past two years. I could feel the energy and momentum the moment I got on campus. I'm extremely appreciative of Coach White for giving me the opportunity. Coach Grant, the staff and everyone around Boston College have been unbelievable the past three years, but I can't wait to get to work in Athens!"

Boston College increased its win total during each of Goins' season with the Eagles, culminating with a 20-16 finish and a bid to the NIT in 2024. Boston College reached the round of 16 in the NIT and in the process secured the Eagles' first 20-win campaign and first postseason victory since 2011.

Goins was an assistant coach at Clemson for two seasons from 2019-21, helping the Tigers secure a bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament. While at Clemson, he oversaw the development of the Tigers' backcourt standouts Tevin Mack, Al-Amir Dawes and Nick Honor.

From 2017-19, Goins was on the staff at Quinnipiac. During the 2018-19 season, the Bobcats finished 16-15 to notch their first winning record in five years. Quinnipiac also received a bid to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) in 2019, just QU's fifth postseason appearance ever. Goins helped to develop three all-conference guards for the Bobcats, including first-team All-MAAC selection Cameron Young.

Goins enjoyed a trio of successful seasons at Yale from 2014-17. The Bulldogs finished 22-10 overall and 11-3 in his year in New Haven to secure the Bulldogs' first Ivy League title since 2002. Yale improved to 23-7 overall and 13-1 in league play during the 2015-16 campaign, both school-record win totals. The Bulldogs won the Ivy League championship outright to garner the program's first NCAA Tournament bid in 54 years. Yale, a No. 12 seed, then upset fifth-seeded Baylor in first round of "March Madness," the first NCAA victory ever for the Bulldogs.



Goins' collegiate career began at Dartmouth in 2013-14, where he helped the Big Green to their highest win total in 15 seasons.

Goins also spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Salisbury Prep School in Connecticut, which compiled a combined 64-18 record during his tenure.

Originally from Greensboro, N.C., Goins graduated from Oscar Smith High School in Chesapeake, Va. He received his bachelor's degree in Sports Management from St. John's in 2008. While an undergrad, Goins served as a practice player for the men's team and helped with women's practices as well.

Goins and his wife, Stephanie, have two children: a son, Anthony "Trey"; and a daughter, Reese.

Todd ABERNETHY

ASSISTANT COACH • 1ST SEASON • OLE MISS '07

Todd Abernethy, who helped Florida Atlantic to NCAA Tournament bids two of the three years prior to his arrival in Athens including reaching the 2023 Final Four, was named assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs in May 2025.

Abernethy spent the previous six seasons coaching at FAU during the Owls' most successful stretch in program history, including postseason bids each of his last four seasons. He is returning to his roots in the SEC. Abernethy sports eight seasons of experience at Ole Miss, four as a player from 2003-07 and four as an assistant coach from 2014-18. In fact, White was an assistant coach on the Rebels' staff during Abernethy's sophomore, junior and senior seasons.

All told, 10 of 11 teams Abernethy has coached finished .500 or better and six have advanced to postseason play. Those squads have combined to produce 13 all-conference honorees – three at Ole Miss, two at Trinity International and eight at FAU. Abernethy helped recruit and develop standouts such as Alijah Martin, Johnell Davis and Vladislav Goldin with the Owls.

FAU recorded a winning record in each of Abernethy's six seasons in Boca Raton and earned four postseason bids. Five of those campaigns were working with Dusty May, who was on White's staff at Louisiana Tech and Florida before becoming the Owls' head coach.

The highlight of that span was during 2022-23 when the Owls notched a nation-leading 35 victories and advanced to Final Four. After sweeping the Conference USA regular-season and tournament titles, FAU was seeded ninth in the East Regional and defeated No. 8 Memphis, No. 16 Fairleigh Dickinson, No. 4 Tennessee and No. 3 Kansas State to reach the NCAA semifinals in Houston. There the Owls dropped a 72-71 setback to San Diego State to finish with a 35-4 record.

Florida Atlantic returned to "March Madness" in 2024, finishing 25-9 and placing second in the American Athletic Conference (AAC) in the Owls' first year in the league.

The Owls were 18-16 in 2024-25 and secured an invite to the NIT.

During Abernethy's first three seasons at FAU, the Owls were 17-15 in 2019-20, 13-10 in 2020-21 and 19-15 in 2021-22. FAU earned a bid to the 2022 Roman College Basketball Invitational (CBI). Abernethy spent the 2018-19 campaign as head coach at Trinity International University, an NAIA school in Bannockburn, Ill., where he led the Trojans to a 15-15 record.

That was preceded for a successful four-season stint at Ole Miss which included a trio of 20-win seasons, reaching the NCAA Tournament in 2015 and advancing the NIT quarterfinals in 2017.

Abernethy began his coaching career by serving as director of basketball operations and video coordinator at IUPUI during the 2013-14 season.

Abernethy enjoyed a successful six-year professional career in Europe with stops in the Netherlands, Latvia, Estonia, Ukraine and Poland. In 2010, his Tartu Rock squad won the Estonian Championship, and he later helped BK Ventspils in Latvia reach the Final 8 of the EuroChallenge in 2012. Abernethy's professional playing career has greatly assisted in his strong record recruiting internationally as a coach.

A 2023 inducted into the Ole Miss Athletics Hall of Fame, Abernethy was a three-year captain for the Rebels. As a senior, he led the Rebels to a 21-13 finish, the SEC Western Division title and the NIT's round of 16 in 2007. Individually, Abernethy earned SEC All-Freshman honors in 2004, was the league's Sixth Man of the Year in 2005 and was an All-SEC honoree by both league coaches an the AP in 2007. Abernethy scored 1,036 points at Ole Miss and when he graduated ranked among the Rebels' top-10 career leaders in assists (No. 3 at 431), 3-pointers (No. 5 with 158), games played (No. 6 with 122) and minutes played (No. 9 with 3,533).

Abernethy was voted first-team Academic All-District by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) in both 2006 and 2007. He received his bachelor's degree in Banking and Finance in 2007 and was Ole Miss' male nominee for the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award that spring.

A native of Carmel, Ind., Abernethy and his wife, Micah, have two daughters, Ruthie and Maria, and two sons, Jack and Nash. Micah lettered in track & field and cross country and earned a degree in Marketing at Ole Miss.

Patrick Blake joined the Georgia Bulldogs in the summer of 2023 as an assistant coach after enjoying success at every stop of his 13-year college coaching career.

Most recently, Blake served as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky from 2019-23 and at Coastal Carolina from 2015-19. During his tenure, both programs established their single-season records for points scored. Blake also enjoyed a stellar run at Chipola College, including leading the Indians to the "Elite Eight" of the 2014 NJCAA Tournament.

Blake helped Eastern Kentucky become one of the nation's highest scoring teams in his final three seasons. The Colonels paced their conference in scoring offense in each of those years, finishing eighth nationally in 2020-21 (81.8 ppg) in EKU's final season in the Ohio Valley Conference. EKU led the Atlantic Sun offensively in both 2021-22 (79.3 ppg) and 2022-23 (78.6 ppg).

Blake played an integral role in Eastern Kentucky signing its highest rated group of recruits in the internet age in 2022. That class of Colonels ranked No. 65 nationally by 247Sports, higher than eight Power conference programs. The group included the EKU's first-ever ESPN four-star prospect and the program's first Kentucky Mr. Basketball since 1980.

The scoring and recruiting translated into winning by the Colonels. Eastern Kentucky led all Division I men's basketball teams in Kentucky with 23 victories in 2022-23 after notching 22 Ws in 2020-21.

During Blake's four seasons in Richmond, the Colonels reached the conference tournament semifinals three times. The 2022-23 season was especially gratifying after the Colonels were picked to finish 10th in the ASUN. Eastern Kentucky went on to reach the championship game of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), the first time in 78 years that EKU won three games in a national tourney.

Blake also spent four seasons at Coastal Carolina, helping the Chanticleers to a trio of postseason bids and an appearance in the CBI's championship series in 2016. In his first season in Conway, Coastal finished 21-12, earned the program's first national postseason victory and went on to reach the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) semifinals. The following year, the Chanticleers advanced to the CBI's championship series. Blake also helped Coastal Carolina back to the 2019 CBI, where the Chanticleers stunned West Virginia, 109-91, in Morgantown.

Blake's first full-time coaching stint was at Chipola College in Marianna, Fla., where he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before being promoted to head coach. In three campaigns as head coach, Blake compiled a record of 62-30 and was named the 2014 Panhandle Conference and State Coach of the Year. The Indians were a combined 46-10 with Blake as an assistant coach. In 2012, Chipola went 26-6 and as the No. 3 seed in the NJCAA Tournament reached the quarterfinals before falling to the eventual national champs, Jones County (Miss.) College.

Blake was a graduate assistant at Ole Miss from 2008-10 while Mike White was an assistant coach on the staff. That stint included a 23-4 finish by the Rebels in 2010 when they shared the SEC West Division title and reached the semifinals of the NIT.

Blake graduated from Louisville in 2009 with a bachelor's in Business Marketing. He was a student manager for the Cardinals for four seasons when they reached the NCAA Final Four in 2005, the NIT semifinals in 2006, the NCAA Round of 32 in 2007 and the NCAA Elite Eight in 2008.

A native of Evansville, Ind., Blake is married to the former Diana Truong. The couple has two sons, Reilly (3) and Brady (2).

DARRYL HARDIN

ASSISTANT COACH • 2ND SEASON • FLORIDA STATE '13

Darryl Hardin, who built a reputation as a premier player development coach while concentrating on the grass roots level of basketball, joined the Georgia Basketball Staff as Director of Player Development in July 2024. He was subsequently promoted to assistant coach after helping the Bulldogs earn their first NCAA Tournament bid in a decade during his first season in Athens.

Prior to joining Mike White's staff, Hardin spent the previous 11 years developing players and teams in the Orlando, Fla., area. He founded and served as head coach for the highly successful 1Family Hoops program. Hardin also worked as a player development coach for Ghost Player Development and is widely known for his expertise with shooting improvements among his players.

In 2023, Hardin was honored by the Black Coaches Association's as a first-team selection in the BCA Circuit Coaching Awards. The BCA selected 10 coaches – five first team and five second team – from more than 5,000 youth development basketball programs nationwide for its awards.

During a decade plus of work at the grass roots level, Hardin coached and helped develop more than 70 players who played NCAA basketball, including approximately 25 at the Power Conference level. The list of 1Family alums includes Asa Newell, who was a first-round pick in the 2025 NBA Draft following one season at Georgia, current Bulldogs Dylan James and Jaden Newell and former UGA players Tyree Crump, Jordan Harris and Amanze Ngumezi.

In addition, Hardin has mentored Division I standouts such as Nassir Little (North Carolina), Kai Jones (Texas), John Mooney (Notre Dame) and Isaiah Brown (Florida).

Hardin also has worked with more than 15 current and former NBA players with summer training sessions, a list headlined by the Indiana Pacers' Pascal Siakam, an NBA Champion, two-time NBA All-Star and two-time All-NBA selection, and Nikola Vucevic, a two-time NBA All-Star.

A native of Saint Petersburg, Fla., Hardin graduated from Saint Petersburg High, where he was a three-year letterwinner in basketball. Hardin also played one season of high school basketball at Northside Christian Academy.

Hardin earned bachelor's degrees in History and Child Development from Florida State in 2013. Darryl and his wife, Sara, have two children: a daughter Myla, born in 2018, and a son Kyrin, born in 2021.

Ben GONZALEZ

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
4TH SEASON • FLORIDA '17

Ben Gonzalez was named the Director of Operations for Georgia Basketball in April 2022.

Gonzalez arrived in Athens after spending the past four seasons in the same role at Florida Atlantic. He also was an undergraduate and graduate manager at Florida for three years during head coach Mike White's first three seasons with the Gators from 2015-18.

"I'm looking forward to working with Ben again," White said. "He was a tremendous student manager for us at UF and enjoyed breakthrough success at FAU. He's very driven and intense in his tasks."

"I am very honored and excited to be able to work for Coach White again," Gonzalez said. "I think of Coach White and many others on our staff as family, and I am grateful to be working with such high-quality people."

Gonzalez joined the FAU staff in 2018 shortly after the introduction of head coach Dusty May, one of three former White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches. Gonzalez's responsibilities at Georgia mirror his duties the Owls, where he managed the team's budget and travel, developed and organized itineraries for recruiting official visits and recruited and developed the team's student managers. In addition, he played a major role in the staging of summer team and individual camps.

While a student at Florida, Gonzalez worked with White during his first three seasons as the Gators' head coach. He spent two years as an undergraduate manager before serving as a graduate manager for the 2017-18 campaign. During that time, Florida recorded 68 wins, advancing to the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, the 2017 NCAA "Elite Eight" and the 2018 NCAA round of 32.

In the summer of 2025, Gonzalez was an assistant coach for an Athletes in Action Foreign tour to the Czech Republic. He helped coach the team to a 3-1 record against the Czech U20 and U23 national teams as they prepared for the U20 European Tournament and the World University Games. The AIA team was made up of college players from around the country who volunteered as a way to further develop their faith and also grow in the game.

Since 2017, Gonzalez has been involved with the Uncommon Sports Group, a faith-based organization founded by former student managers designed to develop leaders in the sports industry. His activities include traveling to Liberia to help lead a three-week sports camp, representing the group at the men's Final Four to attract new members and leading a tour of FAU Athletics facilities for 15 participants selected for an "Impact Trip."

A native of Tampa, Fla., Gonzalez has two degrees from Florida. He earned his bachelor's in Sport Management in three years in 2017 and added a master's in Sport Management a year later. Ben and his wife, Alex, welcomed their first child, a daughter, Stella, in October of 2025.

Charles MANN

DIR. OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/RECRUITING COORD.
4TH SEASON • GEORGIA '16

Charles Mann, one of the most successful players in Georgia history, returned to his alma mater in April 2022 and currently serves as the Bulldogs' Director of Player Development and Recruiting Coordinator.

"Charles knows what it takes to be a successful student-athlete at this level," head coach Mike White said. "He is extremely proud to be a Georgia Bulldog and in many ways has lived the experience we want for all of our players. I'm confident he'll make a major impact within our program."

Mann played in 132 games for Georgia between 2012-16, the most ever by a four-year player, and he is one of only 12 Bulldogs ever to play on three 20-win teams.

Mann spent the three seasons at Army and VCU before coming to Athens.

In 2021-22, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cadets, who finished 15-16. He aided the development of Jalen Rucker, who averaged ranked fourth in the Patriot League in scoring (17.1 ppg), as well as second in 3-pointers, seventh in free throw percentage and ninth in assists.

Mann was a graduate assistant at VCU for two seasons, helping the Rams earn an at-large bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament after finishing second in the Atlantic-10 and reaching the championship game of the A-10 Tournament.

Mann was selected by the Oklahoma City Blue in the second round of the 2016 NBA G-League Draft. He played in Canada in 2016-17 and averaged 15.0 points for Cape Breton before contributing 15.9 points for AB Contern in Luxembourg in 2017-18.

At Georgia, Mann started 106 of 132 games, including 98 of 100 over his final three seasons. He was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team in 2013 and was tabbed second-team All-SEC by league coaches in 2014.

Mann owns the Bulldogs' career records for free throws made (618) and attempted (896). He ranks second in SEC history in trips to the charity stripe – behind only "Pistol" Pete Maravich. Among Georgia's career leaders, Mann finished ranked No. 13 in scoring (1,411 points) and No. 5 in assists (400). He helped Georgia reach postseason play three times, with a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tourney between bids to the 2014 and 2016 NITs, and averaged 19.4 points over six NCAA and NIT contests.

Originally from Queens, N.Y., Mann was a three-time All-State performer in high school, earning second-team honors in Class 5A as a senior at Milton after securing honorable mention status in Class 4A as a sophomore and junior at Union Grove. As a senior, he helped Milton capture the 2012 Georgia 5A state title and earn a consensus top-10 finish nationally.

Mann earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016 and added a master's in Education for Sports Leadership from VCU in 2021.

Ryan McCLOSKEY

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & ANALYTICS
3RD SEASON • FLORIDA '16

Ryan McCloskey joined the Georgia Basketball staff in the summer of 2023 as the Bulldogs' Director of Video and Analytics. Prior to arriving in Athens, McCloskey garnered a wealth of experience during a combined decade of working at Rhode Island and Florida, as well as with USA Basketball.

McCloskey spent five seasons on the staff at Rhode Island from 2018-23. He served in a variety of roles during his tenure with the Rams. After originally joining the staff as video coordinator, McCloskey was promoted after one season to director of operations from 2019-21. He was again promoted to special assistant to the head coach during the 2021-22 campaign before serving as assistant director of operations/video coordinator for the Rams in 2022-23.

Rhode Island's best season during McCloskey's time in Kingston was in 2019-20 when the Rams finished 21-9. Rhode Island entered the Atlantic 10 Tournament as the No. 3 seed and on the bubble for the NCAA Tournament before postseason play was cancelled with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

McCloskey also spent five seasons working with the Florida Gators, two years under Billy Donovan (2013-15) and three with Mike White (2015-18). McCloskey was an undergraduate manager assisting with day-to-day video operations and projects for three seasons before serving as a graduate assistant for two years, where he assisted with day-to-day operations and player development.

Florida averaged 24.2 wins per season during McCloskey's five campaigns with the Gators. During 2013-14, Florida finished 36-3, including a 30-game winning streak. The Gators captured both the SEC regular-season and SEC Tournament titles, were No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Final Four in Indianapolis. Florida also reached the Elite Eight and Round of 32 during the 2017 and 2018 NCAA Tournaments, respectively, during McCloskey's time with the program.

McCloskey gained additional experience with USA Basketball during the summers of 2014 and 2015. He was part of the support staff for the 2014 U18 and 2015 U19 National Teams. The 2014 squad won the U18 FIBA Americas Championship in Colorado Springs, defeating its five opponents by an average of 54.8 points per game en route to qualifying for the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship. The following summer, the Americans, led by Jalen Brunson and Jayson Tatum, won the Gold Medal at the World Championships in Heraklion, Greece, on the island of Crete.

McCloskey received two degrees from Florida, earning both his bachelor's and master's in Sport Management in 2016 and 2018, respectively. Ryan and his wife, Amanda, welcomed a daughter, Jordan, in July 2025.

Collin CRANE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
4TH SEASON • CARSON-NEWMAN '13

Collin Crane was named Director of Athletic Performance for Georgia Men's Basketball on May 12, 2022.

Crane sports 10 seasons of experience, including stints within the SEC at Mississippi State and Florida. During that span, teams with Crane on their strength and conditioning staff earned postseason bids in seven of nine possible years and averaged 22.8 wins per season.

Crane has spent the past five seasons at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs earn postseason bids each year possible. In addition, the Bulldogs were a lock for a postseason invitation in 2020 when they were an NCAA bubble team before the tournament was canceled. Three MSU players during Crane's tenure were on NBA rosters during the 2021-22 season – Reggie Perry (Portland Trail Blazers), Quinndary Weatherspoon (Golden State Warriors) and Robert Woodard II (San Antonio Spurs).

Crane was one of the first strength coaches to partner with Mississippi State's Athlete Engineering Program. The multidisciplinary research collaboration between the university's academic and athletic departments explores human performance, processes and analysis. Since the initiative started, Crane has co-authored multiple peer-reviewed studies on various topics which include force plate analysis and wearable technology in addition to basketball shoe design and assessment.

Prior to his tenure in Starkville, Crane worked at Chattanooga (2015-17), Missouri State (2014-15) and Florida (2012-14). In two seasons at Chattanooga, the Mocs compiled 48 victories, swept the Southern Conference regular-season and tournament titles and earned an NCAA Tournament bid in 2016. He worked with the men's basketball, tennis and golf programs at Missouri State in 2014-15 and also spent two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2012-14. While in Gainesville, the Gators made runs to the 2013 Elite Eight and the 2014 Final Four, and Crane organized NBA Draft training regimens for standouts such as Bradley Beal, Chandler Parsons, Eric Murphy and Patric Young.

Crane played basketball at Carson-Newman University, where he was a four-year starter and three-time captain. Crane ranked fifth in career starts for the Eagles when he graduated. As a senior, Crane helped Carson-Newman to a 20-8 record, the program's first 20-win campaign in a decade. Following the season, Carson-Newman renamed the program's leadership honor the Collin Crane Leadership Award.

Crane earned his bachelor's in Exercise Science from Carson-Newman in 2013 and his master's in Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion from Mississippi State in 2020. Crane is married to the former Courtney Lawson. They have two children: a son, Carson, and a daughter, Miller.

Yoshi SAITO

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER
2ND SEASON • MICHIGAN STATE '16

Yoshitomo "Yoshi" Saito, who has extensive experience in the athletic training and sports medicine fields, joined the Bulldogs' staff in the summer of 2024 after spending the previous two seasons with the Georgia Lady Bulldogs. Saito is the primary individual responsible for the overall healthcare of student-athletes and daily team activities and coordinates with team physicians and in-house physical therapists regarding athletes' plans of care.

Saito came to Georgia in 2022 after spending five years at Louisville. He also has collegiate experience at Toledo and Michigan State, his alma mater.

Saito joined the Louisville sports medicine staff in 2018 as a seasonal assistant athletic trainer whose primary responsibilities were with the baseball and men's golf programs. During that year, the Cardinals advanced to the College World Series and Saito managed athletic training services and facilities for multiple golf tournaments, most notably an NCAA Regional.

In 2019, Saito was promoted to an assistant athletic trainer working with the women's lacrosse team.

The following year, Saito was promoted to associate athletic trainer with his responsibilities focusing on the women's basketball program. During his two seasons with the Cardinals, they advanced to the 2021 "Elite Eight" of the NCAA Tournament and reached the 2022 Final Four. Saito also served a stint as the interim athletic trainer for the men's basketball program during that time frame.

He also was a member of Louisville's international onboarding committee which facilitated the return of international student-athletes to campus and developed resocialization plans following the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prior to his tenure at Louisville, Saito spent two seasons at Toledo as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for baseball.

A native of Yokohama, Japan, Saito came to the United States to attend college and played one season of baseball at Lansing Community College. He earned 2013 Michigan Community College Athletic Association (MCCAA) Freshman of Year honors after batting .457 as the starting centerfielder for LCC's Stars. Saito was tabbed first-team All-MCCAA and named to the NJCAA Region XII team as well.

Saito then transferred to Michigan State, where he joined the Spartans' staff as an athletic trainer. In 2016, he was honored with both the Ray J. Saltzman Outstanding Student Athletic Trainer Award and the Jack and Mary Ann Heppinstall Memorial Scholarship.

Saito received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Michigan State in 2016 and earned a master's in Exercise Science with a concentration in Athletic Training from Toledo in 2018.

In May 2024, Saito married the former Macy Ward.

Casey REED

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT
4TH SEASON • FLORIDA '10

Casey Reed joined the Georgia Basketball staff as the Executive Assistant in May 2022 after spending a decade working within the spirit programs at the University of Florida.

Reed handles a vast list of job responsibilities for the Bulldogs, managing different aspects of the program's office, facility, travel and budget needs. In addition, she also coordinates Georgia Basketball's outreach efforts within the Athletic Association, the Athens community and with former players; serves as a liaison to the promotions, marketing and fan engagement departments; and aids with the Ultimate Guide to Achievement (UGA) initiative to provide players with off-court development opportunities on topics such as financial literacy, community service, social awareness and career development.

From 2012-22, Reed served as the coordinator for Florida's Dazzlers dance team and mascots, with the focal point of enhancing the game day atmosphere for students and alumni at Gator athletic competitions. She also served as liaison between the men's basketball program and the Tip Off Club, its support group, concerning meeting programming, guest speakers, team relations and compliance procedure execution.

During her tenure in Gainesville, Reed managed all travel, equipment purchasing and scholarship distribution for the Gators' spirit squads. Additional duties included coordinating more than 300 internal and external appearance requests for the spirit program, developing and executing various partnership and trade contracts for the spirit teams and assisting with activation of sponsorship-related requirements for the spirit in association with IMG. She also operated multiple "Jr. Spirit Day" camps to raise revenue for the spirit programs and build community involvement.

Reed earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Entomology from Florida in 2010 and 2014, respectively. She was a member of the Dazzlers Dance Team throughout her four years as an undergraduate, serving as the team's co-captain from 2007-09 and captain from 2009-10.

After securing her bachelor's degree, Reed served as an intern at the Walt Disney World Resort from 2010-11. She worked within the "Living with the Land" attraction inside EPCOT and conducted daily "Behind the Seeds Tours," providing guests within an interactive insight at EPCOT's greenhouses, labs and aquaculture facilities.

Reed returned to Gainesville and was a graduate assistant within the school's Entomology program from 2011-14. Her professional experience also includes serving as a judge for Varsity Spirit cheerleading competitions across the country in 2016 and 2017.

Othmane ELYAALAOUI

GRADUATE VIDEO COORDINATOR • GEORGIA '23

Othmane Elyaalaoui (pronounced Oth-man El-yuh-lowh-ee) is in his fourth season with Georgia Basketball and is serving as graduate assistant video coordinator for his second campaign.

From 2019-21, Elyaalaoui worked with TIBU Basketball Academy in his hometown of Casablanca, Morocco. He joined the organization as an intern in July 2019 before serving as basketball operations coordinator from September 2019 until starting graduate school at UGA. Elyaalaoui organized a U14, U16 and U20 Moroccan Basketball Challenge Tour in 2020 and helped manage TIBU's U14 International Tournament featuring teams from France, Germany, Guinea, Morocco, Netherlands and Spain in 2021.

Elyaalaoui earned his bachelor's in Business and Management Studies with Finance from Cardiff Metropolitan University in 2019. There, he founded and was a three-year team captain of CMU's basketball team, also serving as the program's basketball operations manager.

While attending Georgia, Elyaalaoui served as a research assistant, intramural sports official and event management volunteer. He earned his master's degree in Sport Management and Policy from UGA in May 2023 and is on track to receive a master's in Advertising in 2026. Othmane is the son of Jamal and Nadia Elyaalaoui and has an older brother, Youssef.

Alex KLATSKY

GRADUATE MANAGER • FLORIDA '24

Alex Klatsky, a five-year member of the Florida men's basketball roster from 2019-24, is in his second season as a graduate manager with the Bulldogs. Klatsky played for Mike White during his first three seasons with the Gators and is the older brother of current Bulldog Brandon Klatsky.

After redshirting during his initial season in Gainesville (2019-20), Klatsky was a four-year letterwinner for the Gators from 2020-24 and logged action in 25 games during his career. He was a leader off the court as well. Klatsky served as Florida's representative at both the SEC men's basketball Leadership Council and the at NIL Summit in 2023. He received the Lt. Fred Koss Memorial Award in 2024 following his final season with the Gators. Lt. Koss was a former Gator player who died when his F-4 Phantom jet was shot down as he returned from a bombing mission in the Vietnam War.

A native of Colts Neck, N.J., Klatsky turned down Ivy League offers to walk on with the Gators. He was a four-year starter and two-year captain at the Ranney School, helping the Panthers to their first New Jersey Tournament of Champions titile and two New Jersey Shore Conference championships. He was also captain of Ranney's state champion robotics team.

Klatsky received his bachelor's in Information Systems Management from Florida in 2024.

Warren GILLIS

GRADUATE MANAGER • COASTAL CAROLINA '15

Warren Gillis, a standout guard at Coastal Carolina from 2011-15, is in his second season as a graduate manager with the Bulldogs. Following his professional career, Gillis spent the previous six seasons as an assistant coach and director of player development at his alma mater.

Gillis led Coastal Carolina to back-to-back Big South Tournament titles and NCAA Tournament bids in 2014 and 2015. He was named MVP of the 2014 Big South Tournament following his 22-point, seven-assist performance against Winthrop in the championship game. Gillis was also selected to the Big South all-tourney team in 2015 and was tabbed second-team All-Big South as both a junior and a senior. He completed his career as the Chanticleers' 10th-leading scorer with 1,352 points and among Coastal's all-time leaders ranked No. 2 in games played (125), No. 10 in field goals attempted (1,081), No. 2 in free throws made (305) and No. 6 in steals (164).

Gillis played professionaly for three years, with stints with the Glasgow Rocks and the Caledonia Gladiators in the UK and the Kaptenburg Bulls in Austria.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Gillis averaged 24.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 4.1 assists in his final season of prep basketball at Rise Academy.

Gillis earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Management from Coastal Carolina in 2015.

Wade JONES

GRADUATE MANAGER • GEORGIA '25

Wade Jones is in his fifth season as a member of the Georgia Basketball staff and his first as a graduate assistant. Jones has served as a student manager for the Bulldogs for the past four seasons, including leadership as Georgia's head manager during the 2024-25 campaign.

In 2022, Jones attended the NABC Coaches Convention during the Final Four in New Orleans and assisted with the event's Professional Development Series, a continuing education program for coaches at all levels. During the convention, Jones worked with top Division-I coaches such as Niko Nedved (Minnesota), Kellen Sampson (Houston) and Steve Pikiell (Rutgers). He also represented Georgia in the Final Four of the Manager Games during that trip.

Jones played basketball and soccer at Cheyenne Mountain High School in Colorado Springs, Colo. As a junior, he was named first-team all-conference in soccer and averaged 15.3 points, 3.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.1 steals per game in basketball. His senior year was hindered by the COVID pandemic.

Jones received his bachelor's degree in Business Management, Finance from UGA in May 2025. He also earned a certificate in Sports Management from Escuela Universitaria Real Madrid Unverisidad Europea in 2024, developing a global perspective by learning from top European sports executives.

Flippen, who served as a graduate assistant/intern for the UGA compliance office from 1999-01, has two decades of experience at five different Division I schools.

Prior to Athens, Flippen served as Associate Director of Compliance at Georgia Tech. He spent more than six years at Virginia, serving as Director of Compliance for two and a half years and as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance for four more years.

From 2003-04, Flippen was Director of Compliance and Student-Athlete Services at Winthrop. That followed a two-year stint as Compliance Coordinator at Northern Illinois from 2001-03.

Flippen earned his bachelor's in Physical Education and Sports Sciences with a specialization in Sports Administration from North Carolina in 1998 and his master's in Sports Management from UGA in 2000.

A native of Virginia, Flippen moved several times throughout his childhood. He is the son of Bill Flippen, a successful high school football coach in Virginia and North Carolina. Steve and his wife, the former Catherine Horton, have two daughters, Evelyn and McKinsey.

MIKE MOBLEY

SPORTS COMMUNICATIONS

Mike Mobley joined the Athletic Association staff in 1995 and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 2021. His duties include managing communications for the men's basketball and women's golf programs.

From 1995-2015, Mobley served as the SID for women's basketball. During his time as an undergraduate from 1985-89, he worked as the SID for both the track & field and volleyball programs.

Mobley currently serves as the sports information representative for all 14 league schools on the SEC Awards Committee, and he represented Georgia on the SEC's coordination of the 50th anniversary of Title IX.

Mobley is set to work his sixth Olympics in 2026. He served as Venue Press Chief for boxing in Atlanta in 1996. He has been an Information/Liaison Manager for Olympic Broadcasting Services for weightlifting in 2012, for handball in 2016 and 2021 and for both handball and weightlifting in 2024. Mobley will serve in a similar role for OBS at the sliding center in Italy in 2026.

A native of nearby Winder, Mobley received a bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism from UGA in 1989. He is married to the former Sallie Hartnett, and they have two children: Kevin, a 2020 UGA grad and college counselor/assistant basketball coach at Whitefield Academy; and Caroline, a 2023 Furman graduate currently in graduate school at Virginia.

CHAD PALMER

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Chad Palmer, who returned to his alma mater and joined the University of Georgia Health Center staff in April 2014, serves as a team physician for UGA Athletics. Dr. Palmer is in his eighth as the team physician for Georgia Basketball and also works with the women's soccer and baseball programs.

Dr. Palmer served as team physician for a number of colleges and high schools beginning July 2005. He completed a family medicine residency at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2008 and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Washington in 2009. From 2009-14, he worked for Northeast Georgia Physicians Group and was a team physician for the Atlanta Falcons, the University of North Georgia and Chestatee High School. Dr. Palmer also has special expertise and 14 years of experience working with diabetes and has worked with various community youth groups since 2001.

A native of Elberton, Ga., Dr. Palmer graduated from Elbert County Comprehensive High School in 1997. During his time as undergraduate at UGA, he served as a manager for the Georgia Football program for the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Dr. Palmer graduated from Georgia with a bachelor's degree in Biology in 2001 before attending Medical College of Georgia.

Dr. Palmer and his wife, the former Lindsey Ebel, have two sons – Wyatt and Chandler.

BRENTON SHIVER

FAN ENGAGEMENT

Brenton Shiver, who joined the Athletic Association staff on a full-time basis in 2007, was promoted to Director of Fan Engagement in 2015.

Shiver is in his fifth season coordinating efforts surrounding Georgia Basketball and also oversees gymnastics and golf.

During his time with the Bulldogs, Georgia has recorded two of the basketball program's top-4 total attendance records tallies ever – No. 1 164,071 in 2019-20 and No. 4 132,557 in 2021-22. During the 2019-20 campaign, UGA averaged 9,651 fans per game at Stegeman Coliseum, the second-highest mark in program history, and also welcomed a school single-season record 11 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau.

Shiver began working in promotions as an undergraduate in 2004. After receiving his bachelor's in Marketing from UGA in Dec. 2006, served as an intern beginning in Jan. 2007 before joining the staff full-time five months later in June.

In addition to his current responsibilities, Shiver worked with virtually every University of Georgia athletic program during his tenure as a student worker and full-time staffer with the Bulldogs.

Shiver, who earned a master's in Sport Management from UGA in 2015, married his wife, Stephanie, in 2011.

BRANDON SIMS

TICKET SALES

Brandon Sims joined the UGA Athletic Association staff as an account executive in the ticket office in 2018 and was been promoted to Director of Ticket Sales in 2024.

Sims oversees the ticket sales initiatives designed to grow the fan bases and increase revenues for Georgia's tickets sports other than football – men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball and gymnastics. In addition, he assists with football sales.

Sims initial experience within the ticket industry came in 2015 when he served as a member of the ticket event team for the Atlanta Braves. In addition, he then worked as an intern within the Athletic Association's ticket office from 2016-18 while an undergraduate student at UGA.

Sims received his bachelor's degree in Business Management from the Terry College of Business in 2018 and joined the Athletic Association staff on a full-time basis shortly thereafter.

A native of Duluth, Ga., Sims attended Peachtree Ridge High School, where he was a varsity letterwinner on the Lacrosse team. His wife Jennifer Sims (formerly Roveto) is a "Double Dawg" who earned a bachelor's degree in Avian Biology in 2015 and a doctorate in Veterinary Medicine in 2020 and is currently a Clinical Assistant Professor for UGA's Veterinary School.

CAROLYN WALLACE

EVENT & FACILITY OPERATIONS

Carolyn Wallace joined the UGA staff as Associate Director of Event Management in 2017 and currently serves as Senior Associate Director of Event & Facility Operations. Wallace oversees event management for basketball and is facility manager for Stegeman Coliseum and its Training Facility.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Wallace served as event operations manager at Colorado State from 2015-16 where she oversaw gameday management of the women's soccer, women's basketball, track & field and women's tennis programs. At Wake Forest from 2014-15, she was gameday manager and budget manager for women's soccer, women's tennis and track & field. She also was tournament manager for the first round of the 2014 Men's Soccer NCAA Championship. Wallace coordinated event management for four sports and various special events at Villanova from 2013-14 and was gameday manager for five sports at Hartford in 2012-13.

Wallace earned bachelor's degrees from Randolph-Macon (business/economics in 2010) and Eastern Connecticut State (sport and leisure management in 2011). She was an Academic All-America swimmer for both schools. Wallace earned her master's in sport management from Springfield in 2013. Carolyn married Ben Wallace in July 2021. The couple welcomed a daughter, Emmalyn, in 2023, and a son, Nolin, in 2025.

SAMANTHA SPURLOCK

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Samantha Spurlock joined the UGA Athletic Association staff as an academic counselor in January of 2020 to work with the men's basketball and men's and women's cross country programs.

Spurlock previously worked at West Virginia and Marshall. She was an assistant director of student-athlete development at West Virginia from 2017-20, serving as academic advisor for the baseball, gymnastics and women's tennis programs. From 2014-17, Spurlock served as academic advisor for all 14 of the Thundering Herd's different Olympic sports during her tenure. She originally joined the Marshall staff as a graduate assistant for M Club & Big Green, the Herd's Scholarship Foundation, from 2012-14.

Spurlock was a four-year letterwinner for the Thundering Herd softball team. She earned both NFCA Scholar-Athlete and C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition. In 2012, Spurlock was named to the 2012 C-USA Championship All-Tournament Team. A native of Huntington, W. Va., she led Huntington High to back-to-back state titles in 2007 and 2008.

Spurlock has two degrees from Marshall, a bachelor's in Business Administration/Marketing in 2012 and a master's in Sports Administration in 2014. She is engaged to Woody Taylor, associate head coach of the UNC Asheville men's basketball program. The couple welcomed a son, Jett, in 2025.

KEVIN WELCH

EXTERNAL OPERATIONS

Kevin Welch joined the UGA Athletic Association staff in 2011 and currently serves as Director of External Operations.

In that role, his responsibilities include developing and coordinating strategies for new revenue streams and fan engagement across the departmental external enterprises and managing marketing assets for internal and external partners.

Welch began his Athletic Association tenure as a student-athlete mentor from 2011-13 and also served as a part-time marketing assistant during that span before transitioning to a full-time role in 2013. Prior to arriving in Athens, his experience included coaching basketball at Bloomsberg University (2003-04), Wilmington University (2004-09) and Goldey Beacom College (2009-11).

A native of Cincinnati, Welch was named third-team All-Ohio by the Ohio Prep Sportswriter Association in 2000 after averaging 17 points and 12 rebounds as a senior at Indian Hill High School.

From 2000-03, he played at Bucknell, where he received his bachelor's degree in Business Management in 2004. Welch also earned his MBA from the University of Delaware in 2008.

Kevin and his wife, Jennie, who played volleyball at Bucknell, have two children: daughter Julianne and son Colin.

STEVEN DRUMMOND

DEPUTY ATHLETIC DIRECTOR – CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

Steven Drummond serves as Deputy Athletic Director and Chief Marketing Officer of the UGA Athletic Association. Drummond joined the department in October of 2023 leading the execution of the organization's internal and external communications and creative strategy. His role has since expanded and he is responsible for developing and managing partnerships with brands, donors, and NIL platforms to create opportunities for student-athletes.

Drummond joined the Athletic Association after spending the past 22 years as a senior executive in the National Football League with the Carolina Panthers and Jacksonville Jaguars. At Carolina, Drummond most recently served as the organization's vice president of football operations and senior advisor to ownership. Drummond managed all facets of the football operations department, equipment, video, football information technology, and player engagement program while working closely with ownership to advise and support organizational decision-making and messaging.

Previously, Drummond served as vice president and chief communications officer, overseeing the organization's front-facing brands and directing public relations, digital and social media, broadcast video content, community relations, and historical/alum affairs.

Drummond was promoted from assistant director of communications to director of communications in 2015 and executed the team's public relations strategy in a season that saw Carolina advance to Super Bowl 50.

In 2017, he was elevated to director of communications and digital media, where he led the organization through the transformation of its social media, digital video, website editorial, and broadcast/audio platforms, positioning the Panthers as one of the top social and digital media brands in the NFL.

In 2012 and 2021, Drummond was selected by the NFL to participate in the Stanford University League of Leaders executive development program, which provided an opportunity to get a broad and strategic understanding of the industry, operations, and competition from Stanford GSB professors and senior NFL management.

A native of Rock Hill, S.C., Drummond graduated from the University of South Carolina with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication in 2001. He earned his masters degree in sports management from PennWest California in 2009 and his MBA from the Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2024.

JOHN BATEMAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR – MARKETING
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

John Bateman, who with his combined experiences as a UGA student and full-time employee has been a member of the Athletic Association staff for more than three decades, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing in the summer of 2014 after serving eight years as Director of Marketing.

In addition to being a sport administrator for men's basketball, Bateman is responsible for coordinating ticket sales plans, venue concessions and merchandise contracts, marketing and promotional activities on georgiadogs.com and gameday print operations. He is also the liaison between the Athletic Association and the Redcoat Marching Band and all other athletic bands.

Bateman joined the Georgia promotions office on a full-time basis in 1994 and served as Assistant Director for three years. He was promoted to Associate Director in 1997 before being named the Director in 2004. Bateman was promoted once again in 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director, and he also received oversight as the sport administrator for the men's basketball program at that time.

Bateman is a "double-dog" with two degrees from University of Georgia – a bachelor's in Business Administration in 1991 and master's Sport Management in 1993. As an undergraduate, he served as a manager for the men's basketball team, including UGA's 1990 SEC Championship squad. The Bulldogs reached postseason play during three of Bateman's four years with the team, including the 1987 and 2000 NCAA Tournaments and the 1988 NIT.

Bateman began his professional career by working as the championships and officiating assistant at the Southeastern Conference from 1993-94 before returning to his alma mater in 1994.

A native of Albany, Ga., Bateman is married to the former Jill Sirmans, a native of Valdosta, Ga. John is a huge fans of the Atlanta Braves and an avid walker/runner who has run the last 16 editions of the Peachtree Road Race. Jill recently retired after working for the UGA Foundation for 30 years. She was Director of Development with a fundraising focus on the Georgia Women Give initiative.

JOSH BROOKS

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LSU '02

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In the spring of 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying the school record for most titles in one athletics season. Overall, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 10 Southeastern Conference crowns and 33 individual national championships since Brooks was named athletics director in 2021.

Georgia finished No. 7 in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup – the program's highest mark in 18 years – as Brooks was named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year. The Bulldogs have boasted a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last three academic campaigns, set new fundraising marks, and completed 15 capital projects.

In addition to back-to-back football national titles in 2021 and 2022, the women's tennis team has earned six conference championships, a national indoor crown and most recently a NCAA title in 2025; soccer has made the NCAA tournament in back-to-back years for only the second time in program history; both track and field teams finished national runner-up at the 2025 NCAA National Indoor Championships with the women earning the program's first-ever outdoor title, while equestrian earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award for tennis.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team. A Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee was also established as Courtney Gay was hired to lead in the department's DEI efforts.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017

JERE MOREHEAD

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
GEORGIA J.D. '80

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University established a School of Medicine and completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion. It also created an Innovation District, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to enhance the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia.

During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research and development expenditures by over 75%. The University of Georgia ranks No. 1 among U.S. universities for the number of products brought to market based on its research, according to the annual survey by AUTM. UGA has ranked either first or second in this measure for nine consecutive years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with over 43,000 students enrolled in fall 2024 and nearly 48,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2029.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including "The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business," and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a trustee for the Committee on Economic Development and a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

President Morehead is the Immediate Past Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

SUMMER 2025 HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Played for Jamaica's National Team in the FIBA Americas World Cup Pre-Qualifying tournament in Ciudad Obregón in August.
◊ Helped Jamaica go 2-1 and advance to the Americas Qualifiers for the 2027 World Cup, which will be staged in six windows between November and March 2027.
◊ Finished third on the team in rebounding (7.7 rpg) and second in blocks (0.7 bpg) while also contributing 5.7 points and 1.2 assists in 16.6 minutes of action per contest.
◊ Enjoyed his best outing against Barbados, scoring seven points on a perfect 3-of-3 effort from the floor including a 3-pointer, grabbing a game-high 11 rebounds.
◊ Eligible to compete for Jamaica because his mother, Cheryl McDonnough, is a native of the island.

2024-25 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Logged PT in 28 games, contributing 2.2 points and 2.1 rebounds in 9.5 minutes of action per game.
◊ The Bulldogs' third-leading shot blocker with 22 swats and led Georgia in blocks in seven games.
◊ Posted five points, five rebounds and three blocks in UGA's exhibition win over UCF.
◊ Active on the boards against Texas Southern, with six rebounds in 11 minutes of PT.
◊ Strong outing against Jacksonville that included season-high tallies of nine points and three blocks.
◊ More than doubled his season scoring output against Jacksonville, putting up eight points in the first seven contests before posting nine against the Dolphins.
◊ Posted team-high tallies of nine rebounds, three blocks and two steals against Charleston Southern and – despite not taking a shot from the floor – produced a "+/-" of +24 against the Bucs.
◊ After averaging 1.6 ppg in the first 15 games of the season – with a pair of DNPs – contributed 5.0 ppg in the next three outings against No. 17 Oklahoma, No. 6 Tennessee and No. 1 Auburn.
◊ Enjoyed solid minutes against No. 17 Oklahoma, including a hook shot that put Georgia up for good with 10:36 left in the game and an extremely strong "+/-" of +7 in just six minutes of PT.
◊ Another solid "+/-" at No. 6 Tennessee, a team-best +8 in 10 MP.
◊ Equaled his season high with nine points in a season-most 21 minutes of action at No. 1 Auburn.
◊ In upset of No. 3 Florida in Athens, became the first Bulldog to solely lead Georgia in assists, blocks and steals in the same game during the 2024-25 campaign.

APP STATE HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Played in 66 games over two seasons, starting 56 contests and compiling 466 points (7.1 ppg), 428 rebounds (6.5 rpg) and 166 blocks (2.5 bpg).
◊ Notched 18 double-figure scoring games and 10 double-digit rebounding counts, leading to a trio of double-doubles.
◊ Ranked among the top-20 nationally in blocks as both a freshman (No. 19 at 2.2 bpg) and sophomore (No. 5 at 2.8 bpg).
◊ Though he only played two seasons in Boone, ranked No. 3 among the Mountaineers' career leaders for blocks with 166 swats.
◊ Also No. 3 among App State's career field goal percentage leaders at .613, making 198-of-323 shots from the floor.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Started 33 of 34 games played and averaged 7.9 points, 7.1 rebounds and 2.8 blocks in 24.3 minutes of action per game.
◊ Voted the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year by league coaches.
◊ Led the Mountaineers to a national-best 6.8 blocked shots per game as a team while ranking fifth individually at 2.8 bpg.
◊ Was the only Division I player with six six-block performances in 2023-24.
◊ Helped App State post a school record for victories (27-7) and its first outright conference title since 1979 (16-2 in Sun Belt play) en route to an NIT bid.

- Shattered Appalachian State's single-season record for blocked shots with 96 rejections, 21 more than the previous mark.
- Posted his first collegiate double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds in an overtime setback at Oregon State on Nov. 14.
- Collected a career-most 16 rebounds en route to an impressive double-double (15 points) at Georgia State on Feb. 1.
- Equaled the Mountaineers' single-game record for blocks with eight swats against James Madison on Jan. 27.
- Poured in a career-high 20 points at Georgia Southern on Feb. 3.

- Led the Mountaineers in rebounding in 12 contests.

A LITTLE ABOUT JUSTIN

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: Over The Hedge
TV SHOW: The Simpsons
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Kevin Durant
ACTOR: Will Smith
MUSICAL ARTISTS: Rod Wave

FAVORITE EARLY CHILDHOOD MEMORY OF PLAYING BASKETBALL: I went to a Dwyane Wade Camp, and I met Jordyn Kee's dad at that camp. He invited me to play in his AAU team, and that's how me playing basketball really started.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: My blocking ability.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: My sophomore year when I got my first college offer.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? My paint presence on both sides of the ball.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... the group of people I'm around every day.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... the conditioning.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because I'm not a 1-on-1 type person. I like helping others get open and making plays like that.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Shooting.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Cost To Be Alive by Lil Baby.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I read a Bible verse. Psalms 4:14 "Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil."

WHO IS THE MOST FAMOUS PERSON FROM YOUR HIGH SCHOOL? Ariana Grande.

A LITTLE ABOUT JUSTIN

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: The Book of Eli

TV SHOW: Martin

PRO SPORTS TEAM: Pittsburgh Steelers

BASKETBALL PLAYER: LeBron James

NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Usain Bolt

ACTOR: Denzel Washington

FAVORITE EARLY CHILDHOOD MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: LeBron James 3-1 comeback.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Being able to outrun everyone and never get tired.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL? 8th grade.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... my joy.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... some of the drills we do, a rebounding one.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3 AND WHY? 3-on-3 because it allows you to be able to work with teammates.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? my right hand.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? Ability to dunk, for sure! There are about five guys in here I'd like to be for that.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Hide Away by Daya.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT YOU REFLECT ON BEFORE GAMES? I read a verse, pray and listen to my music. I probably read James 1:2-3... "Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance."

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOURSELF AS A PLAYER IN ONE WORD AND WHY? Joyful and electric.

WHY GEORGIA?: It's the best place to be in the SEC.

◊ Reached the 20-point plateau for the first time against Kennesaw State, largely due to converting on 11-of-12 free throw attempts.

◊ Wrapped up the regular season with 10 straight double-figure performances, headlined by 20 points at High Point.

2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ One of only four players to log action in all 32 games, with 12 starts including the campaign's last 10 contests.

◊ Helped the Spartans secure a bid to the Discount Tire College Basketball Invitational (CBI).

◊ Named to the Big South's All-Freshman team and tabbed Big South Freshman of the Week on Nov. 21, Jan. 2 and Feb. 6.

◊ Averaged 10.6 points – third most on the roster – 3.1 rebounds and 1.6 steals – second most on the team – in 30.0 minutes of playing time per game.

BLUE CAIN

6-5 • 195 • JUNIOR • GUARD • KNOXVILLE, TENN.

2024-25 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- One of four Bulldogs to start all 33 games and finished as Georgia's third-leading scorer (9.6 ppg) and second-leading rebounder (4.2 rpg) while averaging 27.0 minutes of PT per contest.
- Connected on a team-best 84.1 percent (58-of-69) of his trips to the line, which also ranks No. 13 among Georgia's all-time single season leaders.
- Recorded 18 double-figure scoring performances and a pair of double-digit rebound outings, leading to the first two double-doubles of his collegiate career.
- Upped his scoring in SEC play, going from an 8.2 ppg scoring average in non-conference play to 10.2 ppg in league action.
- Notched his first career double-double against Texas Southern, grabbing more defensive boards (9) than his previous best overall rebound count (8 at Ohio State in the 2024 NIT quarterfinals).
- Equaled his career high with five 3-pointers en route to a team-high 17 points against No. 15 Marquette.
- Broke out of an 0-for-9 3-point slump to supply UGA's first points of the night against No. 6 Kentucky and eventually finished with 15 points against the Wildcats.
- Flirted with a triple-double against LSU, securing his second double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 boards and also doubling his previous career high for assists with eight (with 0 turnovers).
- His eight assists against LSU also represented the most by any Bulldog during a single-game of the 2024-25 campaign.
- Of his season-high 17 points at No. 8 Texas A&M, 15 came in the first half.
- Knocked down a 3-pointer with 48.1 seconds left to ignite a 10-3 surge to close out an 88-83 upset of No. 3 Florida in Athens.
- A double-digit scorer in a career-long six straight games from Feb. 11-March 4.
- Equaled his season-high scoring output with 17 points and collected a career-most five steals against Oklahoma in the SEC Tournament.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- One of four Bulldogs to see action in all 37 games, starting nine of the season's final 10 contests.
- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Averaged 7.4 points and 2.5 rebounds in 20.8 minutes of action per game.
- Notched 11 double-figure scoring outputs, led by a season-high 19-point outburst against Missouri in the SEC Tournament.

PRO TEAM: L.A. Dodgers
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Dame Lillard
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Tiger Woods
ACTOR: Adam Sandler
SONG: Nostalgia by Rod Wave
FOOD: Chicken wings

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Getting out in transition.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: Freshman year of high school.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Competing with myself and my teammates.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Conditioning.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because you get to play free offense but you don't have to play much defense.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Defensive talking.

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Golf, learning patience and competing with myself.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? The Glory by Kanye West.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? My dad always tells me to be you so I focus on that.

- On the season, 50 of his 103 made field goals – 48.5 percent – were from behind the 3-point arc.
- Scored 12 points against Oregon, the first Georgia freshman with a double-digit performance in the season opener since Anthony Edwards and Sahvir Wheeler scored 24 and 19, respectively, in 2019.
- Put up seven points in a span of 60 seconds against No. 12/11 Miami to turn a two-point deficit into a five-point lead. Eventually finished with a game-high 18 points versus the Hurricanes.
- Notched all 12 of his points by connecting on a quartet of 3s against Georgia Tech.
- Put up a game-high 18 points against Alabama A&M...and missed 20 only because he chose an off-the-backboard assist for a slam dunk by a trailing player over his own breakaway dunk.

A LITTLE ABOUT KANON

FAVORITE...

TV SHOW: The Sopranos

PRO SPORTS TEAM: Indiana Pacers

BASKETBALL PLAYER: Kevin Durant

NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Ousmane Dembélé

MUSICAL SONG: 1 AM by Civ

FAVORITE EARLY CHILDHOOD MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Watching the 2016 NBA Finals.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: The game came naturally because of my family always playing basketball.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL? Sophomore year of high school.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? Shooting.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... winning.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... losing.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3 AND WHY? Probably 1-on-1 just to go head-to-head against someone.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? my overall strength.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOURSELF AS A PLAYER IN ONE WORD AND WHY? Calm.

WHY GEORGIA?: The family culture.

2024-25 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- One of only five Bulldogs to log playing time in all 33 games and led Georgia in both blocked shots (1.5 bpg) and field goal percentage (57-of-91=.626).
- Blocked 51 shots, equaling the No. 11 effort among Georgia's all-time single-season swats leaders (Donte' Williams' 2011-12).
- Contributed 4.6 points and 3.8 rebounds in 14.0 minutes of action per game.
- Recorded three or more blocks in seven games – five twice, four twice and three in three contests.
- Finished the season ranked No. 6 in the SEC and No. 69 nationally – No. 6 among freshmen – in blocked shots (1.5 bpg).
- Helped Georgia finish No. 15 nationally in blocked shots, accounting for more than 30 percent of the Bulldogs' total swats as a team (51-of-169=30.2 percent).
- Averaged 7.0 points and 6.5 boards in exhibition wins over Charlotte and UCF.
- Swatted four shots against Texas Southern, leading the Bulldogs to 12 blocks...their most since also blocking a dozen shots against Vanderbilt on Jan. 9, 2019.
- Enjoyed a stellar outing at Georgia Tech, scoring seven of his nine points and collecting all four boards in just 5:26 of first-half action.
- Notched his first double-digit scoring output with 11 points and came within a single board of his first double-double against Alabama A&M.
- Upped his scoring average by 1.2 ppg – from 3.7 to 4.9 ppg – during his career-high 13-point outing against Jacksonville when he was a perfect 6-of-6 from the field.
- Produced the No. 4 play on SportsCenter's top-10 plays on Dec. 14, a monstrous dunk against Grand Canyon.
- Recorded his first double-double with 10 points and 11 boards – and added a season high with five blocks – against Buffalo.
- After averaging 3.7 ppg and 1.9 bpg over the first seven games of the season, upped those contributions to 10.0 ppg and 3.0 bpg during the next four contests.
- An all-around "presence" against LSU with eight points, 10 boards and three blocks.
- Scored nine points in nine minutes in a key late-season win at South Carolina.
- Wrapped up his freshman campaign with an impressive 10-point performance (on 4-of-6 FGs) in 16 minutes of action against Gonzaga in the NCAA Tournament.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- Coached by Dave Leitao (City Reapers), Ryan Gomes (Cold Hearts) and Corey Frazier (RWE) during his two seasons at Overtime Elite in Atlanta.
- Rated as a consensus four-star prospect by every major recruiting service.
- Ranked as high as the No. 43 recruit in the Class of 2024 by 247Sports.com, as well as No. 47 by On3.com, No. 49 by ESPN.com and No. 56 by Rivals.com.
- Among centers in the Class of 2024, ranked No. 6 by ESPN.com, No. 7 by Rivals.com and No. 10 by On3.com.
- Over 37 games during two seasons at OTE, averaged 8.1 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.2 blocks per game while shooting 66.2 percent from the field.
- Reached double figures in points nine times and in rebounds seven times, producing a trio of double-doubles.
- Played for RWE during 2023-24, averaging 8.1 points, 8.3 boards and 3.1 blocks.
- Helped RWE to a 9-8 record and a fourth-place regular-season finish before upsetting the top-two seeds in the playoffs en route to capturing the OTE Championship.
- Among OTE leaders, finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in blocks (3.3 bpg) and No. 4 in rebounding (9.3 rpg).
- Opened the 2023-24 campaign with 17 points, a career-high 17 rebounds and five blocks against Cold Hearts.
- Put up a season-high 19 points versus YNG Dreamers.
- Played in 17 games during the 2022-23 OTE campaign, averaging 8.1 points, 6.6 rebounds and a league-leading 3.2 blocks per contest.

A LITTLE ABOUT SOMTO

FAVORITE...

Before we start Somto states: "I don't do favorites. I love everybody. To do favorites is difficult for me."

MOVIE: The Rush Hour franchise

PRO SPORT TO WATCH: Basketball or soccer

BASKETBALL PLAYER: LeBron James, Russell Westbrook because he has so much energy and some people compare my game to Dwight Howard.

NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Cristiano Ronaldo

ACTOR: Jackie Chan, I watched a lot of his movies growing up as a kid and it's amazing that he rarely had stunt artists. He did everything himself.

FAVORITE EARLY MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Watching LeBron's highlights. I really didn't know much about basketball so I had to watch videos to learn. The first thing that popped up was LeBron.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Dunking and blocking shots.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing.

DID YOU PLAY A SPORT GROWING UP THAT THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Soccer. I think my footwork is really good when I'm in the paint, and I think soccer helped me with that.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Hit Em Up by Tupac Shakur.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I listen to music but it depends on how I'm feeling. If I have so much energy before a game, I listen to music to calm me down. But if I'm a little too calm, I listen to music to hype myself up.

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Playing at the YMCA in about the 2nd or 3rd grade.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Not really. My height. I wasn't really good at anything at a young age. I was just tall so a lot of teams wanted me on their team.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: Not until like 10th grade. That's when I pulled ahead of people in my class and competed against older players.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: Right now, I would say my versatiliy. I think I'm pretty good at a lot of things on both sides, offense and defense.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Having fun. Scoring. Scoring is the funnest part.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Conditioning

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 1-on-1 because that's the test. I'm better than you. That's the easiest way to test who is better. I feel like that's the best way to get better.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? I wish I had more bounce and was better at dunking.

FAVORITE EARLY CHILDHOOD MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Probably playing with my brother on the rec team when I was 12 and he was 10.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL? I don't know if I was always better, but I was definitely always bigger and I think that helped build my confidence as I continued to grow.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? My skill for my size.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... the rush.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... missing a shot.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3 AND WHY? 2-on-2 because I like playing off someone and I play better when I can pass it and post up.

WHAT SKILL DO YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? My physicality. At this level you have to play against grown men. It's like war every day in that paint.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? Blue Cain's shooting.

DID YOU PLAY A SPORT GROWING UP THAT THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? I played football, tight end and wide reciever, and I think that did help me with my physicality.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? John Cena's entrance music.

24 JADEN NEWELL

6-8 • 225 • R-JUNIOR • FORWARD • DESTIN, FLA.

2024-25 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Following two seasons as a walk-on, was placed on scholarship during the summer.
◊ Played in seven games, averaging 0.4 points, 0.3 rebounds and 0.1 steals in 1.2 minutes of PT in those contests.
◊ Missed the exhibition outing at Charlotte due to injury but returned to play the final 4:32 of a 114-76 exhibition victory over UCF.
◊ Converted on an old-fashioned three-point play against Alabama A&M to top his previous career scoring high...two points against Alabama A&M last season.
◊ Also posted a rebound and a steal versus Alabama A&M.
◊ After playing in three of 37 outings during the 2023-24 season, logged PT in five of 2024-25's first 11 contests.
◊ Checked in for his brother Asa during the regular-season finale against Vanderbilt.
◊ Logged his final playing time of the season against No. 24 Gonzaga in the NCAA Tournament, closing out the contest on the floor with his younger brother Asa.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Checked in to three contests and produced averages of 0.7 points and 0.7 rebounds in 2.3 minutes of playing time per game.
◊ Averaged 15.0 minutes in two outings – the first and third contests – of Georgia's international summer exhibitions in Italy.
◊ Played the final two minutes of a preseason exhibition victory over Eastern Kentucky.
◊ Made his regular-season debut as a Bulldog against North Florida and posted a rebound and steal in two minutes of PT.
◊ Scored his first career points at the free throw line with 42 seconds remaining against Alabama A&M.
◊ Clocked in for the final two minutes of Georgia's NIT semifinal matchup with Seton Hall and grabbed a defensive rebound against the Pirates.

2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Walk-on who earned a redshirt contributing to the scout team but not logging any PT.

◊ Checked in for the final minute of Georgia's exhibition victory over Georgia College.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Coached by Mike Memmen as a senior and by Andrew Thigpen as a junior and a sophomore at Choctawhatchee High.
◊ Played in 50 games for Choctaw High's Indians, including 29 contests as a senior.
◊ As a senior, averaged 4.3 points and 4.1 rebounds to help Choctaw reach the first round of the Florida 5A state tournament.
◊ Helped the fourth-seeded Indians upset top-seeded Godby, 69-55, in the semifinals of the 5A District 1 tournament before falling to Pine Forest, 70-62, in the championship matchup. Pine Forest went on to reach the semifinals of the 2022 5A state tourney.

3 JORDAN ROSS

6-3 • 195 • JUNIOR • GUARD • PLEASANT GROVE, UTAH

ST. MARY'S HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started 35 of 63 games played over two seasons, compiling 328 points (5.2 ppg), 134 rebounds (2.1 rpg) and 111 assists (1.8 apg) in 1,101 minutes (17.5 mpg) of PT.
- Also recorded a stellar assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.92 (111 assists with 38 TOs).
- Posted 13 double-figure scoring outings, all during his sophomore season.
- Helped the Gaels compile a combined 55-14 record, including a 32-2 mark in West Coast Conference play en route to back-to-back WCC regular-season titles.
- Member of two NCAA Tournaments teams, appearing in the Round of 64 in 2024 and advancing to the Round of 32 in 2025.

2024-25 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started all 35 games for the Gaels, averaging 8.3 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.6 assists in 26.5 minutes of action per game.
- Led Saint Mary's in assist-to-turnover ratio at 3.33. Would have ranked No. 6 nationally in assist-to-TOs but fell 15 assists shy of the standard to qualify for national leaders.
- Increased his production and efficiency during WCC play, upping his scoring from 7.8 points and .358 in non-conference outings to 8.8 points and .401 in league contests.
- Made a significant statistical jump from his freshman season, increasing his averages by 7.0 points, 2.1 boards, 1.8 assists and 20.6 minutes per game.
- Posted 13 double-digit scoring outputs, with a career-high 19 against Arizona State.
- Recorded additional career-best tallies of eight assists versus Pepperdine, seven rebounds against Arizona State, three steals versus Washington State and three blocks against Vanderbilt.
- Christened his sophomore season with his first double-figure scoring output of 14 points versus Towson.
- Established career-high outputs of 19 points, seven rebounds and 38 minutes against Arizona State on Nov. 29 in the championship game of the Acrisure Classic in Palm Desert, Calif.
- Averaged 10.9 points over the first eight outings of WCC play.
- Enjoyed a stellar outing in an NCAA Tournament round of 64 victory over Vanderbilt, scoring a team-high 15 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field.
- Keyed a Saint Mary's comeback against the Dores. After the Gaels trailed by 12 when WCC Player of the Year Augustas Marciulionis picked up his fourth foul, scored 10 points in the rally to a 59-56 win.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- The only true freshman to see playing times for the Gaels and averaged 1.3 points, 1.0 rebounds, 0.8 assists and 5.9 minutes in 28 games played.
- Recorded season highs of five points and five rebounds against Pacific.
- Opened his collegiate career with three points, four boards, two assists and a block in 13 minutes against Stanislaus State.
- Logged double-digit minutes in seven contests, including 10 in an NCAA Tournament matchup with Grand Canyon.
- Scored four points on 2-of-2 shooting from the field against Grand Canyon.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- A four-year starter who played two seasons at Pleasant Grove High School before moving at Link Academy as a junior and Arizona Compass Prep as a senior.
- Rated as a four-star recruit by ESPN.com and 247Sports.com and ranked as the No. 94 prospect in the nation in the Class of 2023 by 247Sports.com.
- Among point guards, listed as No. 10 in the On3.com composite, as well as No. 15 by 247Sports.com and No. 23 by ESPN.com.
- Helped Link and Compass to runner-up efforts at the 2022 and 2023 Geico Nationals.
- As a senior, coached by Yariel Esparra at AZ Compass and was the Dragons' assist leader (3.0 apg) – with a team-best 3.00 assist-to-TO ratio – and second-leading scorer (7.5 ppg) in Nike EYBL Scholastic League action.

The Georgia Bulldogs returned to March Madness for the first time in a decade for the 2025 edition of the NCAA Tournament. And they earned their bid by playing one of the nation's most challenging schedule.

All told, the Bulldogs faced other NCAA qualifiers in 20 of their 33 games during the 2024-25 season, which equates to 60.6 percent of their total outings. Georgia played a nation-leading eight regular-season contests against top-10 competition, with five of those matchups coming on the road.

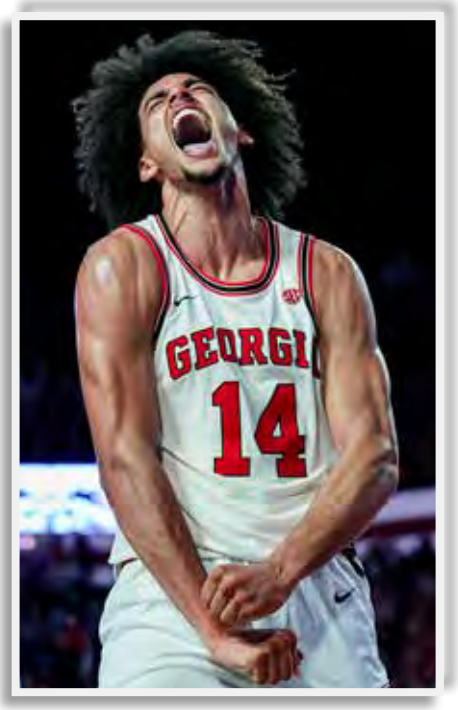
The Bulldogs fared well against quality competition, defeating teams ranked No. 1 (Florida), No. 11 (St. John's) and No. 12 (Kentucky) in the final edition of the AP poll.

Georgia finished 20-13, reaching the 20-win mark during the regular season for just the sixth time in 119 seasons (along with 1931, 1986, 1997, 2011 and 2015). The Bulldogs also secured their second-straight 20-win effort, marking the fifth back-to-back 20-victory campaigns ever for UGA.

Georgia's season ended with a disappointing setback to Gonzaga; however, head coach Mike White was quick to note that the accomplishments of these Bulldogs were significant.

"At the end of the day, I just told our guys, this is my favorite group that I've been around as a whole in terms of people," White told the media following the NCAA Tournament. "We've just got a really special thing going with our culture, with our connectivity. These guys have really strong relationships with one another. These guys got it done. And I hate it for them that it's over.

"We got the highest seed that we've gotten in a long, long time," White continued. "(We) broke some records, ended some streaks, started some streaks, you name it. I mean, you could put together 10 or 12 bullets on a page that these guys accomplished this year. Our net, our KenPom, our offense, our defense. These guys have accomplished a ton, and they should be proud. And they've laid a foundation."



Asa Newell became the first freshman to lead Georgia in both scoring and rebounding since Jumaine Jones in 1998.

DOGS' ENJOY BEST START SINCE 1931

Georgia raced to a 12-1 start to open the 2024-25 season, the Bulldogs' third-best beginning ever and their top effort in 94 seasons as outlined to the right.

Georgia also opened 1930-31 at 12-1 and eventually extended that to a 23-1 record before losing to Maryland in the semifinals of the Southern Conference Tournament and finishing 23-2.

BULLDOGS BACK IN POLLS

Georgia was ranked No. 23 in both the Associated Press and coaches polls released on Monday, Jan. 13.

The Bulldogs last appeared in the AP poll on Jan. 10, 2011, when they were No. 24. Within that week's coaches poll, Georgia was No. 29 among teams receiving votes.

The Bulldogs' most previous appearance in both national polls was March 10, 2003, at No. 21 and No. 22 at AP and coaches, respectively. Georgia ranked during 13 weeks during the 2002-03 campaign, topping out on Jan. 27 at No. 15 in the AP poll and No. 17 in the coaches' ledger.

A pair of victories over ranked foes pushed the Bulldogs into the Jan. 13 polls.

Georgia's 82-69 win over No. 6 Kentucky on Jan. 7 represented the Bulldogs' highest over a ranked foe since defeating No. 5 Kentucky, 65-57, on Jan. 17, 2004. It was also UGA's highest over a ranked opponent at Stegeman Coliseum since beating No. 3 Georgia Tech, 83-80 in double overtime, on Jan. 3, 2004.

Georgia then defeated No. 17 Oklahoma four days later.

The Bulldogs' wins over UK and OU were their first back-to-back victories over ranked opponents since beating No. 25 Kentucky (78-69 in OT) and No. 21 LSU (57-54) on Jan. 24 & 28, 2007, respectively.

Georgia's reward for being ranked was back-to-back trips to No. 6 Tennessee (which was the previous week's No. 1-ranked team) and No. 1 Auburn.

GEORGIA ENDURES BRUTAL STRETCH

The simplistically easy – and maddeningly over utilized – narrative about Georgia's record from Jan. 15-Feb. 22 was:

• The Bulldogs lost nine of 11 games.

While that's factually accurate, more thorough examination reveals:

• Eight of those losses were to top-25 teams.
• Six of those losses were to top-10 teams.
• Five of those setbacks were to top-10 teams on the road.

Stated Mike White: "People asked 'What's wrong with Georgia?' and 'What did you learn about yourself in these skids?' Well, we learned we're probably not a top-10 team. But we might be 11 or 21 or 31, which is still a really good team."

NEWELL EARNS SLEW OF SEC HONORS

Asa Newell received considerable accolades from the Southeastern Conference during his freshman year at Georgia.

Newell was voted to the SEC's All-Freshman team. He was also selected as SEC Freshman of the Week four times, tying Anthony Edwards for the most SEC FOTW certificates ever secured by a Bulldog.

That's just a portion of the recognition Newell received.

On Jan. 29, Newell was featured on The Athletic's Freshman All-America squad.

On Feb. 7, Newell was tabbed a top-10 candidate for the Kareem Abdul-Jabar Award, given to the nation's top center.

On March 12, Newell was named as a finalist for the Kyle Macy Award, which is given to the top freshman in Division I basketball.

On March 18, Newell was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) All-South Atlantic Region, a district that includes schools in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

BULLDOGS ARE BETTER UNDER WHITE

During his first three seasons in Athens, head coach Mike White's teams have displayed consistent and impressive improvement.

From the traditional sports information standpoint, you might read something like:

In White's first season, the Bulldogs upped their regular-season win total from 2021-22 by 10 Ws, the second-largest increase among all Power conference programs. A year later, Georgia earned its first postseason bid since 2017 and while advancing to the NIT semifinals reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2016. During the 2024-25 campaign, the Bulldogs secured their first NCAA Tournament bid in a decade, doing so while playing a nation-leading eight regular-season games against top-10 opponents.

However, the growth of the Georgia program under White's leadership from a quantifiably measurable standpoint is even more dramatic.

From the 2021-22 season before White arrived through his third campaign at Georgia, the Bulldogs ascended an average of 181.2 positions among six of the most popular basketball metrics as outlined in the next column.

Blue Cain's 3-pointer with 48.1 seconds left propelled Georgia to a victory over eventual NCAA champ Florida.

LOTS OF RANKED FOES IN '25

Ranked opponents were close to the norm for Georgia during the, particularly in 2025.

All told, 20 of the Bulldogs' 33 games – or 60.6 percent – were against ranked competition.

Of the Bulldogs' 18 regular-season outings after the New Year began, nearly half of them – eight – were versus top-10 foes.

Georgia played 14 games against top-25 competition in the regular season – second most of any team in the nation as outlined to the left.

The Bulldogs played eight games versus top-10 foes in the regular season – the most of any team in the nation as outlined to the left

10 teams – the most of any team in the nation. In fact, only 18 of 364 D-I teams even played five games versus top-10 opponents during the regular season.

Prior to this season, Georgia had never played four ranked opponents in a row. The Bulldogs played five straight top-25 foes twice during SEC play this season.

DOGS ARE STEGTACULAR AT HOME

Georgia's home court advantage? It's real, and it's Stegtacular.

The Bulldogs were 15-3 in Athens during 2024-25, matching the program's single season record for home wins. Georgia also won 15 home games during the 2013-14 and 2015-16 campaigns; however, those tallies include an NIT victory.

The Bulldogs won their first 11 home contests, building a 13-game home winning streak dating back to the previous season. After producing just eight double-digit home winning streaks in Georgia's first 116 seasons, the Bulldogs have produced three double-digit winning streaks at Stegeman during Mike White's three seasons alone.

#COMMITTOTHEG(RADES)

Georgia produced the men's basketball programs two highest semester grade point averages in program history last season.

The Bulldogs compiled a 3.28 GPA in the fall, their best effort ever and second-highest among all of UGA's men's teams that semester. Georgia notched a 3.18 team GPA during the spring.

Those efforts led to a record-setting number of Bulldogs being named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Justin Abson, Blue Cain, Silas Demary Jr., Dylan James, Brandon Klatsky and Tyrin Lawrence were named to the Winter Sports version of the accolade, while Somto Cyril, Savo Drezgić, Jordyn Kee, Dakota Leffew, De'Shayne Montgomery and Asa Newell earned spots on the Honor Roll ledger for first-year student-athletes.

ASA TRADED TO ATLANTA

Asa Newell declared for the NBA Draft following the season and was selected by New Orleans with the No. 23 pick of the first round... before he was traded to Atlanta.

Newell is the 40th Bulldog to be selected in the NBA Draft and the ninth first-round pick.

Rayshaun Hammonds double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds led Georgia to a 65-62 upset at No. 9 Memphis on Jan. 4, 2020. The victory was just the Bulldogs' second-ever road win over a ranked non-conference opponent. Georgia's only other road win over an AP top-25 team came on Dec. 29, 1977, when the Bulldogs upset No. 7 Louisville, 73-70, in the championship of the Louisville Classic.

2008 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Terrance Woodbury (above left) and MVP Sundiata Gaines (above right) led Georgia to the 2008 SEC Tournament championship with an unforgettable run that included two games in one day. After knocking off Ole Miss in overtime on Thursday, a category F2 tornado struck downtown Atlanta on the night of March 14 shortly before the Bulldogs were to take on Kentucky. It forced postponement of that second-round game, and the tournament's remainder was played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum (top), home court of arch-rival Georgia Tech. Georgia defeated both the Wildcats and Mississippi State on March 15 and then outlasted Arkansas in the championship game on March 16.

THE "OTHER CINDERELLA" OF 1983 THE FINAL FOUR

N.C. State's victory over Houston in the 1983 NCAA Championship game is one of the college basketball's most memorable games. Somewhat lost is Georgia's run as the "other Cinderella" that year. The Bulldogs upset No. 3 St. John's and No. 8 North Carolina to win the NCAA East Regional in Syracuse advance to Albuquerque before falling to the Wolfpack.

The late Alec Kessler, an All-America forward at Georgia in 1989-90, arguably rates among the top scholar-athletes in collegiate history. Kessler, a 3.91 student in Microbiology, was twice named the U.S. Basketball Writers Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For being so honored, Kessler was awarded a pair of $20,000 post-graduate scholarships. Kessler, who played four seasons for the NBA's Miami Heat, in 1991 donated all $40,000 from these scholarships to UGA's general scholarship fund.

DOMINIQUE WILKINS

Known as the "Human Highlight Film," Dominique Wilkins arrived in Athens in 1979 and helped take Georgia Basketball to new heights.

Individually, Wilkins was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-SEC honoree. He was also tabbed both SEC Player of the Year and MVP of the SEC Tournament in 1981.

From a team perspective, Wilkins led Georgia to the 1981 NIT, the Bulldogs' first postseason appearance. A year later, he helped Georgia advance to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins entered the NBA Draft after his junior year. He was the No. 3 overall pick by the Utah Jazz but soon thereafter traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Wilkins played the majority of his career with the Hawks, where he was a nine-time All-Star, a seven-time All-NBA selection and a two-time slam dunk champion.

In 1991, Wilkins became the first Bulldog to have his jersey – No. 21 – retired by Georgia.

Wilkins was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, was a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 2005, was Georgia Basketball's first inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

HUGH DURHAM

During 17 seasons at Georgia, Hugh Durham elevated Georgia Basketball to a national stage.

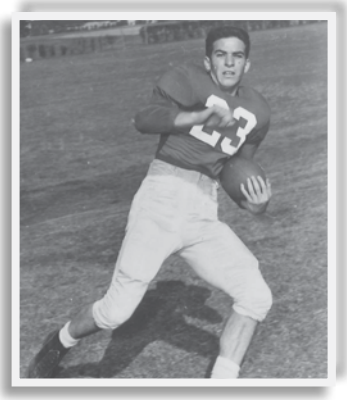
Durham is UGA's winningest coach with 297 victories. Prior to his arrival, Georgia had never received a postseason bid in 74 seasons. The Bulldogs reached postseason play 11 times during Durham's tenure and also won their first SEC Tournament in 1983 and SEC Championship in 1990. He was named SEC Coach of the Year three times – in 1985, 1987 and 1990.

In UGA's initial NCAA Tournament appearance in 1983, the Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four. Durham's Dogs defeated St. John's and North Carolina to win the East Regional before falling to eventual champion N.C. State.

Durham posted 633 career victories in 37 seasons, with 230 at Florida State and 106 at Jacksonville bookending his wins at Georgia. He was the first coach in Division I history to take two schools to their first Final Four and just the sixth to reach the Final Four at two schools.

Durham was inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame 1980, the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 1994, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009, the Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

ZIPPY MOROCCO



Anthony "Zippy" Morocco came to Athens from Youngstown, Ohio and became UGA's first All-American in basketball and one of the Bulldogs' best two-sport performers ever.

Morocco led the SEC in scoring in 1953 at 23.6 points per game on 590 points, breaking the existing SEC mark of 540 points by Kentucky's Cliff Hagan. He led the Bulldog football team in kickoff returns three consecutive years and in punt returns twice. He also was Georgia's top receiver in 1950 and averaged over 10 yards every time he touched the ball.

Morocco was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

ALEC KESSLER

Alec Kessler is widely regarded as one of the greatest student-athletes in the history of college athletics.

On the basketball court, he broke UGA's career scoring record, was named SEC Player of the Year and All-America in 1990 and was chosen No. 12 overall in the NBA Draft.

Kessler graduated with a 3.91 GPA while majoring in Microbiology. He was named men's basketball's Academic All-American of the Year in both 1989 and 1990 and was selected as the top Academic All-American for all sports in 1990.

Kessler was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015.

UGA CIRCLE OF HONOR

ALEC KESSLER – 2000
ZIPPY MOROCCO – 2002
JARVIS HAYES – 2020

The Circle of Honor is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

WILLIE ANDERSON

Atlanta native Willie Anderson blossomed into one of the college basketball's most diverse talents during his career at UGA. As a senior, Anderson averaged 16.7 points, 4.0 assists and 1.9 steals in 1988. He then earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team that summer.

Anderson was drafted No. 10 overall by San Antonio Spurs in the 1988 NBA Draft. He was a first-team All-NBA Rookie pick in 1989 and went on to play nine seasons in the NBA.

Anderson was enshrined in the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope was the No. 8 overall pick and selected by the Detriot Pistons during the 2008 NBA Draft. Caldwell-Pope went on to start on two NBA Championships teams – the L.A. Lakers in 2020 and the Denver Nuggets in 2023.

Anthony Edwards was taken No. 1 overall by the Minnesota in 2020, a wise pick considering midway through his second season he became the fourth-youngest player to reach 2,500 points in league history.

Asa Newell was selected by the New Orleans Pelicans with the No. 23 overall pick of the 2025 NBA Draft but shortly thereafter was traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Newell became Georgia's eighth first-round pick and third since 2013.

Damien Wilkins enjoyed a 10-year NBA career with six different franchises as an undrafted free agent. Wilkins spent five seasons in Seattle before successive campaigns in Minnesota, Philadelphia, Detroit, Atlanta and Indianapolis.

VERN FLEMING

1984 LOS ANGELES OLYMPIC GAMES

Vern Fleming, one of the finest Bulldog performers in history, made his mark at every level of competitive basketball. In 1984, he earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and played a large role in its Gold Medal-winning effort.

Fleming averaged 7.7 points during the Los Angeles Olympics, connecting on 51.1 percent of his shots. He also tallied 19 rebounds, 19 assists and nine steals.

Many consider the 1984 Americans as the finest amateur assemblage in the sport's history. The squad featured future Naismith Hall of Fame inductees Michael Jordan, Chris Mullin and Patrick Ewing.

From 1984-95, Fleming was a standout player for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

ANTHONY EDWARDS

2023 WORLD CUP & 2024 PARIS OLYMPICS

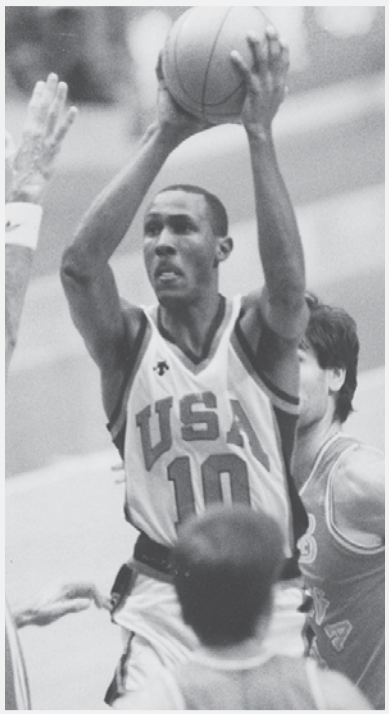
Anthony Edwards earned first-team all-tournament honors after he helped lead the USA to a fourth place finish at the 2023 FIBA World Cup in Manila. Edwards paced the USA in both scoring (18.9 ppg) and playing time (26.0 mpg) and also was the team's second-leading rebounder (4.6 rpg).

The following summer, Edwards played a pivotal role in the Americans' march to a fifth-straight Olympic Gold Medal in Paris.

The Atlanta native averaged 12.8 ppg, 2.8 rpg, 1.2 apg and a team-high 1.3 spg in 16.3 mpg. Edwards posted double-figure scoring totals in four of six Olympic outings, including a 26-point outburst against Puerto Rico which made him the youngest American (22 years old) to reach the 20-point plateau in Olympic competition since Dwight Howard in 2008.

WILLIE ANDERSON

1988 SEOUL OLYMPIC GAMES



Willie Anderson was star performer of the 1987 and 1988 Bulldogs, leading the '87 squad to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In 1988, Anderson was selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and in the same year was the first-round draft pick of the San Antonio Spurs. The Americans earned a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics. Anderson averaged 5.0 points per game while pacing the squad by shooting 64.0 percent from the field. He also added 13 rebounds, six assists, six steals and four blocks.

Anderson returned from Seoul and played seven years for the Spurs before doing stints with Toronto, New York and Miami to round out his 10-year career in the league.

ADDITIONAL DOGS ON USA TEAMS

JUMAINE JONES

The 6-7 forward put an exclamation mark on his outstanding freshman season at Georgia by making the 12-man U.S. team for the 1998 Goodwill Games. Jones started all five games for the Americans and averaged 7.4 points for the Gold Medal winners.

TREY THOMPKINS

Thompkins played a key role in the U.S. winning the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship, averaging 10.6 points – second-best on the team – and 5.1 rebounds. A year later, he was named to the USA Select squad that trained alongside the USA National Team.

DAMIEN WILKINS

Wilkins started every contest in the 2015 Pan Am Games helped the Americans secure a Bronze Medal. He averaged 13.2 points while shooting 54.8 percent from the floor, 75.0 percent from 3-point range and 70.8 percent from the line.

YANTE MATEN

Yante Maten donned the Red, White & Blue for USA Basketball in 2020 for the National Team participating in qualifying for the 2021 Americup. Maten started both games and averaged 14.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in wins over The Bahamas and Mexico.

The first games in Georgia basketball history took place in the old YMCA building, located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton streets.

Since the inaugural season of 1905-06, Georgia basketball has called six different buildings home. These facilities have held a wide range of usefulness and pertinence to basketball. There's little doubt, however, that the Bulldogs' current home of Stegeman Coliseum is the best, most accommodating home they've ever had.

During the 1906-12 seasons, Georgia games were played in the old Athens YMCA building located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton Streets, currently the site of the Georgia Theater. The seating capacity for spectators was about 200, but it didn't seem to matter in those days. The earliest Bulldogs played their games in relative anonymity. Very rarely did the attendance reach full capacity at the YMCA building.

The building that is now called Memorial Hall on campus was the second gymnasium used by the Bulldog cagers. Construction on this facility began in 1910 and was to be built by the Alumni and the YMCA in a joint effort. The Alumni Association, however, eventually assumed full responsibility for the funds for its construction. Only in a partial state of completion, the team began to use the auditorium of "Alumni Hall," as it was called then, for its home games. Spectators viewed the games from a balcony which ran around the playing court, and the baskets were affixed to this balcony. In fact, the balcony became quite the advantage for Bulldog hoopsters, who had to tailor the arc of their shots to avoid hitting it.

Alumni Hall was used until about 1920, when the team moved to another on-campus location known as "The Octagon." It was located about where the current Main Library parking lot is, between the library and Jackson Street. Built in 1916 for $3,600 and for the purpose of accommodating summer-school functions, the Octagon was made of wood and sat approximately 1,400 people. The main problem for basketball was the lack of a heating system in this 8-sided building. There was also a four-foot opening around the wall up to the roof, with the roof overhanging to prevent rain from blowing in. The Octagon was used sparingly because of the absence of heat and also because of the ever-growing crowds.

Moss Auditorium, formerly the third floor of what became the Gallant-Belk store, was used for most of the games from 1920 until Woodruff Hall was completed. Crowds of up to 1,500 were estimated to have attended some of the home games.

Around this time, however, Coach Herman J. Stegeman was building quite a program. It became necessary for the basketball team to enjoy its own facility to accommodate the large crowds. Just before the completion of Woodruff Hall in 1925, the Bulldogs moved back into Alumni Hall, the construction of which had finally resumed after a fund-raising drive.

Excavation began on November 20, 1924 for the construction of Woodruff Hall, the building that was named for George and Harry Woodruff of Columbus, Ga. This facility was built in a central on-campus location, where the Journalism/Psychology building now stands, and had a seating capacity of 3,500. There was space enough for three basketball courts, with the main court measuring not quite the required length of 94 feet. Built at an estimated cost of $53,000, Woodruff Hall was officially dedicated by Dr. S.V. Sanford on Feb. 21, 1925 in a game where Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 34-24.

Woodruff Hall served as the Bulldogs' home for nearly 40 years. By the end of that stretch, however, many believed it had become the bane of the program.

Harbin "Red" Lawson was Georgia's coach for the last 13 years in Woodruff Hall. Publicly, he joked that it was the only basketball facility where wind direction and velocity affected his strategy. Other coaches, led by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, despised playing games there. So dimly lit was Woodruff Hall that Auburn coach Joel Eaves turned out half the lights in his own gym, just to prepare for the Georgia game.

Eventually, Eaves became Athletic Director at Georgia. Two years into his tenure, in 1964, the Bulldogs dedicated their current home as the Georgia Coliseum. In 1996, it was given its current name of Stegeman Coliseum in honor of the man that first lifted the Georgia basketball program into prominence.

Over its 50 years, Stegeman Coliseum has hosted its share of memories, and also extracurricular functions. Operated in a co-op agreement with the University's agricultural college, the Bulldogs once shared the building with various rodeos and other livestock shows. And in 1996, the world's sporting attention turned to Athens, where Stegeman played host to volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics competitions at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.
